MARINE CORPS GENERAL ORDERS.

GENERAL ORDER,
No. 1.

HEADQUARTERS,
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON, December 21, 1908.

1. Attention is called to paragraph 353, U. S. Army Regulations, 1908, relative to post exchanges.

2. Hereafter the commanding officers of all posts of the Marine Corps will comply with the requirements of said paragraph, making their reports to the Adjutant and Inspector, U. S. M. C.

3. The commanding officers of all posts in the Phillippine Islands will forward their reports through the Assistant Adjutant and Inspector, U. S. M. C, Manila, P. I., and the commanding officers of all posts on the Pacific Coast, in Guam and the Hawaiian Islands will forward their reports through the assistant Adjutant and Inspector, U. S. M. C., San Francisco, California.

4. The Comptroller of the Treasury has decided that a stoppage can be made against the account of a man for an indebtedness to a properly authorized Post Exchange for an amount not exceeding that authorized by regulations. This amount in the Marine Corps has been fixed at one-third of one month's pay. On the 20th of June, 1904, the Secretary of the Navy authorized the establishment of past exchanges at all marine barracks, excepting where post traders then existed.

5. Such checkages, made according to paragraph 352, Army Regulations, 1908, are to be limited to cases of transfers or discharges from the post, between pay days, under such circumstances as to make it impracticable for the enlisted men concerned to settle, in cash, their indebtedness upon departure or discharge. The amount of authorized checkages will be noted on the pay-roll and upon the transfers or discharge in the same manner as over-issues of clothing, and other authorized checkages. In the case of such authorized stoppages, commanding officers will, in addition, have the amounts made out on the form of voucher adopted for that purpose, which may be obtained by requisition in the ordinary manner; these vouchers to be rendered in duplicate to the pay officer.

6. The post exchange officer, when he is not the only officer attached to the post, must be regularly detailed as such by the commanding officer.

7. When practicable, the services of barbers and laundrymen will be provided by the post exchange under such rules as the post exchange council may prescribe.

8. All debts due the United States must be charged before a post exchange checkage can be made, so that the full amount of a post exchange checkage can not be charged on the pay rolls if it thereby renders the man concerned overpaid; in other words, in debt to the Government. This does not, of course, prevent the checkage being made as soon as the man may have a sufficient amount to his credit to cover the same.

9. Post exchange officers may receive checks from officers in payment for indebtedness, but they will under no circumstances cash checks from anyone.

10. All Post Exchange, Post Treasurer and Company Funds will be deposited in a national bank or government depository.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 2.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, December 21, 1908.

1. In accordance with the appropriation act approved March 2, 1907:—

First class cooks are entitled to $10.00 a month: second class cooks $8.00: third class cooks $7.00; and fourth class cooks $5.00.

(c) For 75 or more men, serving as a company, 1 first class and 1 second class cook: provided, that 75 or more men in a company are not to receive the allowance of cooks "for 100 to 200 men," if the strength of said company is over 100.

(d) For 100 men or less, serving in garrison, 1 first class and 1 second class cook.

(e) For over 100 to 200 men, 1 first class, 1 second class and 1 third class cook.

(f) For over 200 to 300 men, 1 first class, 1 second class, 1 third class and 1 fourth class cook.

(g) For over 300 to 400 men, 1 first class, 1 second class, 1 third class and 2 fourth class cooks.

(h) For over 400 to 500 men [except where there are two or more distinct messes, when cooks will be allowed as indicated in (a) to (g), inclusive], 1 first class, 1 second class, 2 third class and 2 fourth class cooks.

(i) For over 500 to 600 men [except where there are two or more distinct messes, when cooks will be allowed as indicated in (a) to (g), inclusive], 1 first class, 2 second class, 2 third class and 2 fourth class cooks.

3. Men detailed as cooks, in accordance herewith, will be credited on the regular monthly pay rolls.

4. Proportionate amounts of a month's compensation as cook will be allowed for services as such during fractional parts of a month.

5. A man detailed as a cook, and receiving compensation as such, will not be detailed on, nor receive additional pay for any other special duty.

6. Enlisted men of the Marine Corps regularly detailed as messmen in a command, not to exceed in number one for every twenty men, shall receive the same compensation in addition to their monthly pay as is or may hereafter be allowed enlisted men of the Navy under like circumstances. Provided, that Marines must be under regular detail for a whole month to be entitled to this extra compensation.

7. Paragraph 525-3, U. S. Navy Regulations, will apply to the detail of messmen. Under no circumstances will noncommissioned officers be so detailed.

8. Mess sergeants, entitled to six dollars per month in addition to their regular pay under the act approved May 11, 1908, duly detailed and assigned to the supervision of messes of enlisted men, are authorized as follows:

[a] One for each company mess, where detachments of enlisted men of the Marine Corps are regularly organized into companies of substantially the same strength as those of the Infantry of the Army, and appear as such upon muster rolls rendered to these Headquarters and upon pay rolls of the Paymaster's Department.

[b] Where detachments of such companies mess separately, in number habitually greater than twenty-five, one additional mess sergeant is allowed.

[c] Mess sergeants will habitually be detailed from the grade of sergeant.

9. Where organizations or detachments are merged into a general mess, or where there is no company organization such as described in paragraph 8, mess sergeants will not be detailed; but additional compensation will be given a mess steward, one for each general mess, as provided in paragraph 330, U. S. Army Regulations, 1908.

10. The word "companies" employed in paragraph 8 does not apply to companies organized at posts within the United States.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER,
NO. 3.

HEADQUARTERS,
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, December 21, 1908.

1. Hereafter the following instructions concerning stragglers and deserters will be carried out:

2. No articles of outer uniform clothing other than such as may be necessary to enable them to appear decently clad, shall be issued to enlisted men who surrender, or who are delivered at a marine barracks as stragglers or deserters from the U. S. Marine Corps, and who are to be recommended for trial by general court-martial.

3. Such men will be retained in confinement, and in cases of conviction will be transferred to prison in the clothing worn by them when received into the custody of the Marine Corps authorities.

4. When recruits transferred from a recruiting office to a barracks desert en route, the recruiting officer will be informed of the fact at the time the man is declared a deserter.

5. When a straggler from another post is apprehended or surrenders within ten days from the time of his original absence, the commanding officer will immediately telegraph this information to the commanding officer of the barracks from which said man is absent.

6. Upon the receipt of such a telegram the commanding officer will retain the staff returns until orders as to their disposition are received from these Headquarters.

7. In forwarding the staff returns of any enlisted man dropped as a deserter, a notation will be made on his descriptive book as to whether a reward has been made for his apprehension and delivery, and if so, the amount of such reward.

8. Whenever a reward is offered for the apprehension and delivery of a straggler or a deserter, a copy of it will be sent to the office of the Adjutant and Inspector.

9. When an enlisted man who has been absent without leave from any cause for a greater period than thirty days is delivered or apprehended, or one who has been so absent for a greater period than ninety days surrenders or delivers himself at a post, a full report on the case will be made to these Headquarters, transmitting with this report a written statement by the man, a list of witnesses and, if practicable, statements of his accounts from the date of delivery or surrender to the date of the report. No disciplinary action in the case will be taken until instructions from this office are received.

10. If a reward has been paid for delivery this fact and the amount will be stated in this report, and the amount will be deducted in the statement of pay account.

11. In order to have at hand and immediately available for use before general courts-martial the necessary evidence for the trial of enlisted men of the Marine Corps who have been declared deserters, upon their return to the service, and to aid courts-martial in determining whether such men are guilty of desertion or of absence without leave, this office directs that hereafter upon the desertion of enlisted men of the Corps entries be made in their descriptive books at the time of desertion in regard to such of the following circumstances attending the desertion as may be practicable in each case: disposal of effects, especially uniforms; secret preparations for desertion; procuring plain clothes; declarations to comrades; a known desire to quit the service; taking passage for a distant point; escape from arrest and quitting the immediate vicinity of his station and duty; the commission of an offense and fear of punishment therefor. As attending the departure of the accused, a report as to whether he left any effects of value upon departure is the one most easily ascertainable. A report of every possible circumstance connected with the accused's departure and return to the Marine Corps will be noted.

12. When a deserter surrenders or is delivered it is desired that the report of his return include statements in regard to the following points: the manner of his return, whether forced or voluntary, or if voluntary, through fear of arrest; the physical condition of the person so returned, as stated by the medical officer; statements made to prove identity; statements on surrender as to whether he is a deserter or straggler; whether in plain clothes or uniform upon return; condition of clothing, whether adequate or not for the season and part of country from which returned, and whether ragged or not.

Major-General, Commandant.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, December 21, 1908.

1. In order to comply with Article 189, U. S. Army Transport Service Regulations, 1905, it is hereby directed that every detachment which is transferred from posts in the United States for embarkation in a U. S. Army Transport en route for service in the Philippine Islands be provided with the certificate of a naval surgeon to the effect that its members have been duly inspected and are protected against smallpox.

2. In case an epidemic disease makes its appearance among any detachment of marines en route for embarkation on a transport, the commanding officer of the detachment will at once notify the senior army surgeon at the place of sailing, by telegraph.

3. The commanding officer of each post of the Marine Corps from which a detachment leaves en route for embarkation on a transport will order the commanding officer of the detachment to carry the above into effect should occasion arise.

Major-General Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 5.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, December 21, 1908.

The following Executive Order is hereby promulgated for the information of officers of the U. S. Marine Corps:

"1. Officers of the United States Marine Corps, of whatever rank, will be examined physically and undergo the tests herein prescribed at least once in every two years; the time of such examinations to be designated by the Commandant of the Corps so as to interfere as little as possible with their regular duties, and the tests to be carried out in the United States between May first and July first, as the Commandant of the Corps may direct, and on foreign stations between December first and February first.

"2. All field officers will be required to take a riding test of ninety miles, this distance to be covered in three days. Physical examinations before and after riding, and the riding tests, to be the same as those prescribed for the United States Army by General Orders, No. 79 (paragraph 3), War Department, May 14, 1908.

"3. Line officers of the Marine Corps in the grade of captain or lieutenant will be required to walk fifty miles, this distance to be divided into three days, actual marching time, including rests, twenty hours. In battle, time is essential and ground may have to be covered on the run: if these officers are not equal to the average physical strength of their companies the men will be held back, resulting in unnecessary loss of life and probably defeat: Company officers will, therefore, be required, during one of the marching periods, to double-time two hundred yards, with a half minute's rest; then three hundred yards, with one minute's rest: and then complete the test in a two hundred yard dash, making in all seven hundred yards on the double-time, with one and one-half minutes' rest. The physical examinations before and after the tests to be the same as provided for in paragraph 2 of this order.

"4. The Commandant of the Marine Corps will be required to make such of the above tests as the Secretary of the Navy shall direct.

"5. Field officers of the permanent staff of the Marine Corps who have arrived at an age and rank which renders it highly improbable that they will ever be assigned to any duty requiring participation in active military operations in the field, may, upon their own application, be excused from the physical test, but not from the physical examination, prescribed above. Such a request, however, if granted, will be regarded by the executive authority as conclusive reason for not selecting the applicant for any future promotion in volunteer rank, or for assignment, selection or promotion to a position involving participation in operations of the line of the Marine Corps, or in competition with officers of the line of the Marine Corps for any position.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 6.

HEADQUARTERS.
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON. January 27, 1909.

1. Paragraph 2, page 5, of the circular of "Instructions for the Guidance of Those Concerned in Making and Forwarding Identification Records," dated June 10, 1907, is hereby amended to read as follows:

The recruit will then be required to sign his name in full in the place provided for "signature of recruit" and immediately thereafter to make a rolled impression of the index finger of the right hand in the space reserved for that purpose, both signature and signature-print to be made in the presence of the commissioned officer who is to sign the record. The fact that the recruit may be left-handed will not be considered in taking the signature impression. In taking this impression of the right index finger the holder should not be used, as there is liability of blurring the other impressions in replacing the form in the holder.

2. Hereafter, upon the arrival of an enlisted man at a post or recruiting office, who was enlisted or reenlisted prior to July 1, 1907, and whose descriptive book does not show an identification record to have been made, his prints will be taken, the fact entered in his descriptive book, and the slip promptly forwarded to the Adjutant and Inspector.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER
NO. 7.

HEADQUARTERS,
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON, January 27, 1909.

1. As it is considered that the presence of reenlisted men in a detachment of marines is conducive to discipline and to efficiency in the performance of its duties, and in order to induce men to continue in the service, and give them the benefit of the increased compensation due to their being awarded good conduct medals, etc., it is deemed advisable that any man, the average of whose markings for discharge is four and one half (4 1-2) or over, be recommended for character "Excellent" upon discharge and for a good conduct medal or bar as the case may be; the character proposed to be given, to be noted on the letter transmitting the staff returns, and the certificate relative to the good conduct medal, or bar, to be inserted under the head of "Remarks" on the old style descriptive list, or on page 5 of the descriptive book: said certificate to be signed by the commanding officer transmitting the staff returns.

2. The above remarks (in reference to good conduct medals) will not be applicable to a man who has been legally convicted by a couat-martial and the sentence approved by proper authority. Excepting that in cases of men who have been convicted by Army summary court-martial while on detached duty with the Army where the offense is of a minor character and such as would ordinarily come under the cognizance of the commanding officer under the Navy Regulations, the conviction will be given the same consideration as is given punishments awarded by commanding officers under said Regulations; but where the offense is of such a serious character as would ordinarily be punishable by a summary cour-martial under the Navy Regulations the conviction will be given the same weight as a conviction by a naval summary court-martial.

3. In determining the character to be given, the nature of a man's service during his enlistment, as shown by his descriptive list, or book, will be carefully considered. due weight being given to the markings of his former commanding officers and the opportunities possessed by them for arriving at their conclusions, as indicated by the periods the man served under each.

4. Undue weight shall not be given the markings received for service rendered as a recruit.

5. Before the staff returns of a man are forwarded to these Headquarters for discharge, his commanding officer will enter on the descriptive list, or book, the markings to which the man is entitled for service at that post. Below that line will be entered the marks to which the man appears to be entitled for the whole of his enlistment; said markings being determined from an examination of his previous markings, offenses committed and punishments awarded.

6. In the case of a man who has been legally convicted by court-martial during his current enlistment (excepting in cases of conviction by Army summary court-martial where the offense is of a minor character, as described in paragraph 2 above), but the average of whose markings for discharge is four and one half (4 1-2) or over, he will be considered eligible for character "Excellent" but not for a good conduct medal.

1. Hereafter, where detachments of enlisted men are transferred for organization into expeditionary forces for service outside the United States, or where similar detachments are transferred from such expeditionary forces already organized, or from service in the Philippines to the United States, there will be prepared but two copies of their pay accounts on form N. M. C. 46 (a or b), which copies will at once be submitted direct to the paymaster keeping their accounts for his audit, certification and transmittal to the proper paymaster.

2. The third copy of such pay accounts will invariably be prepared separately, for each man, on forms N. M. C. 40 or 41, signed by the post or company commander only and securely attached to the descriptive book of the man concerned and will accompany same with marine as a part of his staff returns. Commanding officers of posts or companies where such men may join will transmit at once to the proper paymaster, these individual pay accounts, with a list of such men as have joined their commands, prepared on forms N. The following Executive Order is published for the information of the service:

"Enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps, while being transported on an Army transport, shall be subject to and obey the United States Army Transport Service Regulations, and shall be liable to their proportionate share of police and guard duty whenever the commanding officer of troops on board the transport shall deem it advisable to divide those duties between the enlisted men of the Army and those of the Navy or Marine Corps on board. Enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps may also be called upon, but only when, in the judgment of said commanding officer, there is an emergency, to perform such duty as their special knowledge and skill may enable them to perform.

"Enlisted men of the Army, while being transported on a naval vessel, shall be subject to and obey the regulations of the ship, and shall be liable to their proportionate share of police and guard duty whenever the commanding officer of the ship shall deem it advisable to divide those duties between the enlisted men of the Navy and those of the Army on board. HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, January 30, 1909.

Regulations Governing the Management and Running of Marine Corps Laundries.

1. a. The laundry will be run under the supervision of the Post Quartermaster, who will monthly certify to the Post Exchange Officer the individual indebtedness of the men. The Post Exchange Officer will take up these amounts as due the post exchange and collect them in the regular manner.

b. These amounts will be in addition to the regular indebtedness of one-third allowed enlisted men by the Navy Regulations.

c. In the case of transfer of enlisted men who are indebted to the post laundry, collections will be made through the Paymaster's department in the same manner that checkages and collections are now made for moneys due the post exchange.

d. Separate books will be kept for the laundry under the personal supervision of the Post Quartermaster.

2. a. The laundry will be run at as near cost as possible, it not being the intention that the institution shall be a money-making proposition. But that the work for the post shall be done as cheaply as is consistent with good work.

b. The profits from the laundry will be placed in a sinking fund for the improvement of the laundry and such other legitimate expenses connected with the same as may be recommended from time to time by the Post Council of Administration, subject to the approval of the Commanding Officer.

c. The prices charged and the number of persons employed by the post laundry will be fixed from time to time by the Post Council of Administration, subject to the approval of the Commanding Officer.

d. The monthly rate charged each man for his laundry will not be reduced below fifty cents at any time without the approval of the Commandant of the Marine Corps.

e. The number of pieces to be laundered per week for each man shall not exceed sixteen (16): all pieces in excess of that number shall be charged for at the rate of one and one-half cents apiece. For washing blue blouses, blue trousers and blankets an extra charge will be made, at the rate of ten cents apiece.

4. a. All enlisted men attached to the post will be required to have their work done at the post laundry, for sanitary reasons.

b. Each man shall collect and deliver his own laundry.

5. a. One enlisted man, to be known as "Chief Laundryman," will have charge of the sorting-room and of the receiving and issuing of the laundry, and will also keep the laundry books. He will be paid $15.00 per month, from the laundry receipts.

b. One private will be employed as engineer and fireman, and to do such work in the laundry as the superintendent may direct. He will be paid $15.00 per month, from the laundry receipts.

c. One practical laundryman, either a civilian, at $45.00 per month, or an enlisted man, at $15.00 per month, shall have charge of the laundry, these amounts to be paid from the laundry receipts.

d. Four women will be employed to do the ironing, at a salary not to exceed $4.00 per week, to be paid from the laundry receipts.

6. The foregoing regulations will be subject to such change as the Commandant of the Marine Corps may deem necessary or advisable. For this purpose the Post Quartermaster at such posts as are now or may hereafter be equipped with laundries will submit such recommendations, from time to time, as may seem advisable with a view to giving effect to the object for which such laundries are intended, viz: thoroughness of work, cleanliness and economical administration.

WASHINGTON, March 13, 1909.

The provisions of General Order No. 7, Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, dated January 27, 1909, are hereby so far modified that convictions by deck court will not bar enlisted men of the Marine Corps from being recommended, upon discharge, for good-conduct medals.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 14.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON. March 16, 1909.

1. To obviate the necessity of frequently returning enlistment papers for correction as to age, the method of calculating the approximate age shall conform with Article 1130 (g), U. S. Navy Regulations, 1905, especially upon the enlistment of apprentices.

2. When an applicant who appears to be eligible presents himself for enlistment he will be required to carefully write his name IN FULL in the proper place on the declaration. Should the applicant's signature not be legible, or any part of it indistinct or confused, he should be required to spell his name while one of the recruiting detail writes it on the enlistment paper letter by letter. Similar letters such as "n" and "u" should be carefully distinguished. Variations in the spelling of common names should be carefully noted, as "Frederic," "Fredric," "Frederick," etc.

3. Enlistment papers should be carefully gone over to make sure that they are complete and correct in every respect. If the recruit has enlisted at a post his enlistment paper should be forwarded at once to the Adjutant and Inspector. If the recruit has enlisted at a recruiting office, his enlistment paper should be forwarded to the Adjutant and Inspector immediately upon his transfer from the recruiting office, with the date of transfer noted thereon.

4. The term "enlistment paper" will apply to the new combination sheet containing the oath and declaration on one side, and a description of the recruit on the other.

5. The term "descriptive book" will apply to the new style descriptive list in book form.

6. Under "Family History" should be given a concise statement of the family history of the recruit, such as "satisfactory:" or some specific occurrence should be noted.

7. "When and Where Last Examined" and "State of Health since Last Examination" apply only to reenlisted men.

8. Attention is called to the following rules adopted by the War and the Navy Departments, and approved by the President of the United States:

"Recruiting officers of the Army and Marine Corps are authorized to apply direct to the Major General, Commandant, or to The Adjutant General, respectively, for verification of prior service claimed, when the applicant is unable to produce his discharge certificate, or when there is evidence of fraud or error therein."

The application to The Adjutant General of the Army will contain a statement of the prior army service claimed, and such other information as may be necessary. These applications will be made by telegraph. A copy of the application and the original of The Adjutant General's reply will be attached to the enlistment papers, or forwarded to the Adjutant and Inspector, in case the applicant is not enlisted.

9. Each applicant for enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps will be questioned as to whether or not he is a member of the organized militia of a State or Territory. Should it appear that an applicant is a member of the organized militia, the recruiting officer will, before enlisting the man, require official evidence of his acquittal from the obligations of service therein, either by formal discharge, or by letter or telegram from the Adjutant General or other competent authority of the state or territory.

10. Recruiting officers will closely question every applicant for enlistment as to whether he is the sole support of aged parents or minor children, and will reject him in case it transpire that there are those who are thus dependent upon him.

11. When the enlistment of apprentices is authorized, they will be transferred, upon enlistment, to the Marine Barracks, Washington, D. C.

12. The following requirements in the enlistment of apprentices will be adhered to:

Age, over 15 years, under 17 years.
Minimum height	59 inches
Minimum weight	90 pounds
Minimum chest circumference	29 inches
Minimum expansion	2 inches
Minimum vision (Snellen)	18-20

The applicant must further be of good muscular development, of good moral character, and must agree to serve until he reaches the age of twenty-one. The written consent of the parents, surviving parent or guardian, executed in the presence of the recruiting officer, is necessary on the enlistment paper.

13. Before minors are enlisted, the following form will be filled out:

.....

{We / I} ....., do hereby certify that {we are the parents / I am the..... and only surviving parent of / I am the legally appointed guardian

.....; that the said.....

.....is.....years and.....months of age;

that {we / I} hereby freely give {our / my} consent to his enlisting in the United States Marine Corps for the period of FOUR YEARS, and, further, that {we / I} hereby waive all claim upon the time and services of the said ..... during the remainder of his minority.

..... {Father. / Guardian. / Mother.}

Witness:

14. Minors will not be enlisted, under any circumstances. without special authority from the Major General, Commandant. Such authority will not be requested, under any circumstances, unless the applicant is especially desirable.

15. The instructions contained in the pamphlet, N. M. S. Sp. 4-26-7, entitled "Extracts from Regulations and Instructions in Relation to the Physical Examination of Recruits for Enlistment in the Navy and Marine Corps," prepared by the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Navy Department, will be strictly adhered to in all cases.

16. In case an exceptionally desirable applicant is 1-2 inch under height, or 15 lbs. under weight, application for waivers should be made to the Major General, Commandant.

17. This office will hold recruiting officers accountable for the enlistment of men who may be rejected upon reexamination at a post, as it would appear that the examination was carelessly made and in violation of the instructions in force, and under the regulations the expense incurred in enlisting such men may be checked against the pay of the officer responsible.

18. Recruiting officers will instruct the medical examiners in their recruiting districts not to accept for first enlistment men whose abdominal walls show by scar that they have been subjects of operation for appendicitis, as a large number of these cases in time develop weakness of the abdominal wall in or about the scar; that pains in the affected regions are common, and the existence of the scar gives a sufficient reason for a claim for relief from duty, which, though it may be false, is practically impossible to disprove.

19. When money is issued by a recruiting officer to any member of a recruiting party, or to any recruit enlisted in his district, or issued by a member of a recruiting party to any recruit, such as money for meals or transfers in transit from a recruiting office to barracks or other point to which recruits or members of a recruiting party are transferred, memorandum receipts will be taken from each individual receiving cash, and in cases of parties, when the entire amount is given to one man, memorandum receipts will so state in full, and the purpose indicated for which money is given. All such receipts will be retained by the officer in charge of the recruiting district for future reference, should it at any time be claimed that the proper amount of cash was not given.

20. All enlisted men who are on recruiting duty when their enlistments expire will be discharged at the recruiting office or station where they are serving. When the descriptive list of a man on recruiting duty has been sent to these headquarters for the preparation of his discharge, the man will not be traesferred from the station designated for discharge.

21. Should it be found necessary to send any man on recruiting duty, or any man on furlough reporting as "sick" at any recruiting office, to a hospital, he will not be sent to a civil hospital, unless a Government hospital (Naval, Army or Marine Hospital Service) is not available.

22. All changes of station of enlisted men in recruiting districts will be reported to the Adjutant and Inspector, immediately after such change is made. This applies to men transferred from one recruiting office to another, from the recruiting district to another station, or from a station to the district, but is only to include members of the recruiting party and not recruits.

23. The Paymaster, U. S. Marine Corps, in the payment of enlisted men on recruiting duty, will send to the officer in charge of each recruiting district, individual checks for the payment of each enlisted man on duty in his district. When practicable these checks will be delivered to the enlisted men in person, but when not, they will be forwarded to them by registered mail. The Quartermaster will furnish each officer in charge of a recruiting district with postage stamps to be used in covering the expense of registering letters containing checks forwarded to enlisted men at stations.

24. The Comptroller of the Treasury decided, under date of February 13, 1907, that enlisted men of the Marine Corps may have the rank and receive the pay and allowances of sergeant and corporal of the infantry of the Army, in the same manner and under the same conditions that enlisted men of the Army may receive the same, by virtue of the Act of Congress approved February 2, 1901, (31 Stat. 756), and paragraph 852, Army Regulations, 1904.

25. The Major General, Commandant, directs that the officers in charge of recruiting districts appoint and muster at each station, in their respective districts, not to exceed one enlisted man of the recruiting party a sergeant and one a corporal.

26. The appointment of these sergeants and corporals will be governed by the following paragraphs of the Army Regulations, 1908, substituting "The Major General Commandant," for "The Adjutant General of the Army," and "The War Department"—

> "853. All enlisted men prior to their assignment to general recruiting duty will be transferred to the general service, infantry. The Recruiting Officer in charge of each recruing station, having first satisfied himself of the soldiers' fitness for the positions, will announce in orders from his station, and muster from the date of such announcement, one member of his recruiting party as sergeant and one as corporal. Such orders will be entered in the records of the recruiting station and a copy of each order will be forwarded to the Adjutant General of the Army; a copy will also be furnished to each soldier concerned.

"854. Members of recruiting parties announced and mustered as sergeants or corporals will not be reduced while performing such duty without the approval of the Adjutant General of the Army. Their appointments as sergeants or corporals will, however, terminate whenever they are relieved from recruiting duty, or when the stations at which they are serving are discontinued, unless they shall be assigned to other recruiting stations at which there are vacancies in their respective grades. The recruiting officer will in every case announce in orders the date of the termination of an appointment as sergeant or corporal and furnish copies of each order as indicated in paragraph 853.

"855. All assignments of enlisted men to the general recruiting service will be as privates, the question of their promotion as sergeants or corporals being for determination after their fitness and capacity shall have been demonstrated. Individual applications for transfer to the general recruiting service will be forwarded, whenever practicable, through the proper commanding officers, who will endorse thereon their recommendations, based upon service and merit, and also a statement of the soldier's fitness for recruiting duty, especially as regards clerical ability and knowledge of Army papers. The transfers will be made from time to time, as the interests of the service require, in orders from the War Department."

27. Note will be made, on page 5 of the descriptive book, of appointments and reductions, in the latter case giving the reasons therefor. Sergeants and corporals of the recruiting service will be entered on the muster-rolls, and pay-rolls as of those grades, and entry will be made in the column of "Remarks" showing the nature of the appointment, by whom made, its date, and the station for which appointment is made. In event of revocation of any such appointment, copies of the order of revocation, showing the approval thereof by the Major General, Commandant, will be furnished as provided for in paragraph 26, except that no copy need be furnished to the Major General, Commandant. Wherever new assignments of such enlisted men to other recruiting stations are made, a new letter of appointment shall be issued and copies furnished as provided for in paragraph 26.

28. In order to secure uniformity in the manner of making appointments and reductions of noncommissioned officers on recruiting service, the following forms will be observed:

29. In transferring a noncommissioned officer on recruiting service from one station to another in the same district where a vacancy exists for a noncommissioned officer of that rank, a new letter of appointment will not be issued as provided for in paragraph 27, of this order, but the copy of warrant in possession of such noncommissioned officer will be endorsed by the transferring officer to the effect that such warrant is continued in force and credited to the station to which transferred, and these headquarters will be at once notified of this endorsement. Where such transfers occur between different recruiting districts, the endorsement above described will be entered, subject to the limitation of paragraph 853, Army Regulations, 1908, by the recruiting officer. The officer upon whose roll such noncommissioned officer is next mustered for pay will accompany said roll with a copy of the original appointment and the endorsements thereon.

30. It is hereby directed that in order to avoid confusion the place of duty of a man shall not be changed after his staff returns have been transferred to the Major General, Commandant, for discharge, except in cases of emergency or of urgent necessity, and in all such cases the Major General, Commandant, will be immediately notified by telegraph of any change made.

31. It is directed that in each recruiting district there shall be one station known as Headquarters Station of the District, and the others as stations. The term "sub-station" will be discontinued in the future.

32. Hereafter requisitions of whatever character, whether for advertising, rent of office or employment of medical examiners, will be addressed to the Quartermaster, U. S. M. C., and forwarded through the Commandant.

33. In the case of medical examiners, when the Quartermaster shall have approved the expense involved, the recruiting officers, themselves, will appoint the medical examiners.

34. Recruiting officers will strictly conform to the provisions of section 3828 of the Revised Statutes, which reads:

> "No advertisement, notice or proposal, for any executive department of the government, or for any bureau thereof, or for any office therewith connected, shall be published in any newspaper whatever, except in pursuance of a written authority for such publication from the head of such department."

35. Recruiting officers will be held strictly accountable for the prompt return of certificates of publication of newspaper advertisements.

36. The telegraphic address of all recruiting officers will be "MARINE RECRUITING" followed by the street and city address of the office in question. For example: "Marine Recruiting, 1317 Market St., Philadelphia, Pa.," or "Marine Recruiting, Federal Building, Buffalo, N. Y."

37. Recruiting officers will render to the Paymaster, or to the Assistant Paymaster, U. S. M. C., having their accounts, vouchers for transportation furnished them on Marine Corps transportation and sleeping car requests, for travel performed between points in their districts for which actual expenses are allowed in lieu of mileage.

G. F. ELLIOTT,

GENERAL ORDER
No. 15.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON, March 17, 1909.

1. The circular letters of this office No. 10446, dated February 18, 1908, and No. 18781, dated April 1, 1908, are hereby withdrawn, and the following instructions will be substituted therefor:

2. In order to secure uniformity in the manner of carrying extra and special duty men on the muster rolls, it is directed that enlisted men detailed to perform specific services which remove them temporarily from the ordinary duty roster of the post, detachment, or organization to which they belong, be shown on the muster rolls as on "extra duty" if their work is such as to entitled them to increased compensation therefor from the Government; otherwise on "special duty." As, for example,

"Extra duty, clerk, C. O."
"Extra duty, teamster."
"Special duty, post exchange steward."
"Special duty, mail orderly," etc.

3. The inclusive dates will be added to the entry on the roll, under the column "Remarks", where the detail is for a shorter period than that for which the roll is rendered.

4. Sergeants major, quartermaster sergeants, and first sergeants, when performing duties pertaining to their respective ranks, should not be shown on the muster rolls as on extra or special duty; but in the recapitulation and in the "strength and distribution" reports, they should be shown as "on duty". In all cases, however, the entry in column of "Remarks" should show the duty performed, as, for example, "In charge of clothing room;" "In charge of Arms and Accoutrements," etc.

5. No man will be detailed on extra duty, which will entitle him to increased compensation from the Government, without authority of the Major General, Commandant.

6. Extra duty pay will not be allowed to enlisted men performing extra duty at such posts where 20 per cent. increase is allowed by law for foreign service.

In case there is more than one enlisted man of the same name at a given post or station, the one to whom it is intended to refer must be identified by the number on his descriptive book, or by giving the place and the date of his enlistment, or otherwise.

2. If it be necessary to alter any entries in the descriptive book, (especially on pages 12 and 13, "Marks and Scars,") such alteration will be make in red ink and properly authenticated by the initials of the officer making the change.

1. In the future, drills and instructions for the U. S. Marine Corps shall conform to the provisions of

(a) The Landing Force and Small-Arm Instructions, U. S. Navy, 1905;

(b) Ship and Gun Drills, U. S. Navy, 1905;

(c) Boat-Book, U. S. Navy, 1905.

2. Commanding officers of posts of the Marine Corps will exercise special care to cause all government books, particularly those of a confidential nature, which have been issued to other officers of the post for their personal use, but which still remain government property, to be returned to the office or bureau to which the books belong, upon the death, dismissal, resignation or retirement, of the officer to whom issued.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 21.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON. April 1, 1909.

1. It is considered of great importance, in the interest of the Government, as well as that of all officers in charge of quartermaster's supplies, that the utmost vigilance be exercised as to the possession of keys to any and all store-rooms, and that such officers personally and frequently inspect and count public supplies in their charge.

2. In this connection your attention is especially called to paragraphs 27, 39 and 162, of the System of Accountability, U. S. Marine Corps, 1904. The provisions of these regulations must be strictly adhered to. Particular attention is called to so much thereof as relates to the inspection and counting of Government property, the matter of keys to store-rooms, etc. Keys to store-rooms will not be allowed to leave the possession of the commissioned officer accountable and responsible, except in cases of emergency, and in every such instance the circumstances will be reported by him in writing to the commanding officer of the post, whose responsibility is defined in paragraph 26, System of Accountability. This direction is to be taken literally; and only when urgent, and then for the briefest possible time, will the keys to store-rooms be out of the hands of the officers in charge thereof.

3. An important consideration in this connection is that enlisted men, whether noncommissioned officers or privates, should not have their offices in the clothing room. Their books, sheets, returns, invoices, receipts, etc., must be kept in a room separated from the clothing-room. If the clerical labor of the enlisted men is performed in a room or office separated from the clothing room, the necessity for giving men the keys thereto will be done away with or reduced to the minimum, especially as the System of Accountability directs that no issue of clothing shall be made except in the presence of a commissioned officer, who should be the assistant quartermaster or post quartermaster. If the existing arrangement of rooms at any post is not such as to provide an office for the clerical force separated from the supply-room, the commanding officer will promptly report the fact and submit a recommendation looking to a rearrangement. (Any or all post orders in conflict with the foregoing will be modified to conform thereto.)

4. Commanding officers and all other officers of the Marine Corps are informed that they are without authority of law to authorize the exchange of government clothing issued to enlisted persons of the Marine Corps, for other articles, however similar in kind, and whatever the circumstances surrounding the case may be. The authorization of such exchanges serves to prevent the prosecution, by the United States, of persons unquestionably guilty of fraud on the Government, or collusion therein, and is hereby expressly forbidden.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, April 1, 1909.

It is directed that the greatest care and vigilance be exercised by commanding officers, post quartermasters, and in fact, all officers serving at posts who are in any way brought in contact with the ration, to see that not only do the component parts of the ration, as supplied by the contractor, conform in all respects as to quality with the requirements of the contract and specifications, but, furthermore, to note that the quantities actually received are in accordance with the amounts called for in the ration check, so that there may be no question that, both in quantity and quality, the rations supplied the men conform in every particular with the requirements of the contract. The undersigned believes that this is a question of the utmost importance to the Marine Corps, and the officers concerned are, therefore, enjoined to exercise the greatest vigilance in the matter herein referred to.

It is further directed that at the end of each month there be submitted to this office a copy of the bill of fare of the command for said month.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER
NO. 23.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, April 2, 1909.

1. DEPOSITS MADE WITH NAVY PAY OFFICERS: Commanding officers of marines and non-commissioned officers in charge of marine detachments paid by naval pay officers, shall render monthly reports to the Paymaster, U. S. Marine Corps, on form N. M. C. 436, as to all sums deposited during the month (whether made in cash or by checkage on pay-rolls) by enlisted men of their command.

2. BOUNTY ON RE-ENLISTMENT. (a) Hereafter, upon the first muster for payment on first re-enlistment, within three months, of such men as were honorably discharged at the termination of their first enlistment period, as privates, musicians or trumpeters, credit will be given on pay-rolls as a "Miscellaneous Credit" of a fixed sum, equal to three months' pay at the rate received at the time of discharge, which includes foreign-service pay and pay of every kind which such men were actually receiving at the time of discharge. The column of "Remarks" on pay-rolls of shore stations will contain complete information supporting such credits. For example:

"Honorably discharged at (station) . or on board (vessel), (date), (rank)."

(b) Where forms of extra compensation are included in such bounties, remarks on pay-rolls should show, in addition to the above requirements, the kind of service for the performance of which extra compensation was being received at the time of discharge. For example: "Serving at time of discharge as cook, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, or 4th class; messman, signalman, 1st, 2nd, or 3rd class; gunpointer (intermediate) 1st or 2nd class; gunpointer (secondary) 1st or 2nd class; expert rifleman, sharpshooter or marksman; or on extra duty as mechanic, artisan, school teacher, overseer, clerk, teamster or laborer."

(c) Upon the honorable discharge of any private, musician or trumpeter at the termination of his first enlistment period, where service is being performed for which forms of extra compensation are provided, his commanding officer will invariably enter, under "Remarks," on the reverse side of such certificate, the kind of service for the performance of which such compensation was paid, in the same terms as are indicated in the preceding paragraph. Commanding officers will make similar entry in the Report of Discharges, column "Remarks."

3. UNAUTHORIZED ABSENCE. (a) The pay-rolls from shore stations will contain, under the head of "Remarks," all periods of unauthorized absence during the month, but no period less than 24 hours, or any fractional part of 24 hours, will be entered. In the proper column the necessary checkage for said unauthorized absence will be made.

(b) Upon the transfer of a man from a post or from the marine detachment of a vessel, there will be entered in the descriptive list or book, which forms a part of his staff-returns, the aggregate of the unauthorized absences during his tour of duty at said post or on board said vessel.

(c) Enlisted men will, in the future, be denied credit (for periods of such unauthorized absence, which involve checkages of pay as above outlined,) in fixing the dates which will control the rate of pay prescribed by the Act of May 11, 1908, in determining dates of expiration of their periods of enlistment and for continuous service. The original dates, in each case, will be extended by an amount equal to the aggregate of unauthorized absences for which pay has been checked.

(d) Checkages entered on pay-rolls of posts subsequent to the forwardingofthe staff returns to the Major-General, Commandant, for discharge will, if practicable, be immediately reported to Headquarters and to the Paymaster making final settlements. Should, however, the discharge papers be received at a post, in which the checkages above mentioned have not been entered by the paymaster making the settlement, commanding officers will, upon delivery of the papers, in cases of boys enlisted for minority, and men discharged for cause other than expiration of enlistment, collect where practicable, the total resultant overpayment, which in each case will consist of the pay and the clothing credit for the particular period of unauthorized absence, subsequent to sending the staff returns to the Major-General, Commandant. The amount thus collected will, unless otherwise directed, be transmitted to the paymaster making the settlement, and the man will be discharged upon the date mentioned in the papers transmitted from these Headquarters.

(e) Collections of sums resultant from checkages similar to those mentioned above, in case of men discharged by expiration of enlistment, are not involved, as such men are required to make good the periods of unauthorized absence, and will be so held to service by commanding officers of posts. Reports of retention beyond the dates to which their accounts have been settled, will be promptly made to Headquarters and to the paymaster settling the accounts. The muster, pay, and clothing rolls of the post will show, in all cases, the actual date of discharge, and the pay and clothing accounts will be credited and checked the number of days of unauthorized absence.

(f) In the cases contemplated in the two preceding paragraphs, commanding officers will appropriately endorse on the copy of the final statement delivered to the soldier, the facts as to dates of discharge, checkages for absence without leave, collections or otherwise.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

1. In the preparation of official telegrams an excessive number of words is being used in the addresses, thus unnecessarily increasing expenses. It is, therefore, directed that such telegrams when intended for the Commandant, U. S. Marine Corps, be addressed, "Marcorps, Washington, D. C.:" for the Adjutant and Inspector, "Adjutant, Marcorps, Warhington, D. C.:" for the Quartermaster, "Quartermaster, Marcorps, Washington, D. C.:" for the Paymaster, "Paymaster, Marcorps, Washington, D. C."

2. The addresses of telegrams for other officials will contain only such words as are absolutely necessary to insure prompt and certain delivery.

3. The minimum length of a government telegram is twenty (20) words, counting the address, the body, and the signature. That is, from two (2) to twenty (20) words may be sent to a given point for the same charge as one word. Therefore, unless a telegram, including address, body, and signature, exceeds twenty (20) words when written in ordinary English, it will not be enciphered, except for the purpose of secrecy. Every figure of a number is counted as a word. Therefore, all numbers not expressed in code will be spelled out in the least possible number of words. For example: "1100," which is counted as four (4) words, should be written "eleven hundred."

4. The auditor for the Navy Department has ruled that all telegrams sent for the convenience or benefit of officers or enlisted men shall be charged immediately against those concerned.

5. In the above connection, attention is called to the first two sentences of paragraph 5 and to paragraphs 6, 8, 10, 11, and 12, Article 1525, U. S. Navy Regulations, 1909.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 27.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, April 9, 1909.

1. In pursuance of authority received from the Secretary of the Navy, it is hereby directed that when a marine is transferred from any station outside the continental limits of the United States to the Marine Barracks, Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., for bad conduct or dishonorable discharge in accordance with the sentence of either a summary or a general court-martial, the commanding officer transferring him have his staff-returns closed for discharge as far as practicable, and forward them, together with a written statement of all available information concerning him that may be necessary for immediate discharge, so as to reach their destination with him, to the commanding officer of the above mentioned barracks.

2. Upon the receipt in this office of the Department's letter or memorandum authorizing the discharge of such a marine, a copy will be furnished each staff-officer concerned and the original will be referred by endorsement to the Commanding Officer, Marine Barracks, Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., with directions to discharge the man as soon as practicable after he has joined that post. The Adjutant and Inspector will be furnished with a copy of this endorsement.

3. Upon the arrival of the man and his staff-returns at the above-mentioned barracks the commanding officer thereof, after taking the necessary data from the staff-returns, will distribute them among the three staff-officers at San Francisco, Cal., sending the descriptive-book to the Assistant Adjutant and Inspector, the clothing-account to the Assistant Quartermaster, and the pay-account to the Assistant Paymaster. The commanding officer will also prepare, sign and forward with the descriptive-book a certificate of discharge, which certificate, after being registered by the Assistant Adjutant and Inspector, will be forwarded to the Assistant Quartermaster, thence to the Assistant Paymaster, and thence returned, with a final statement of account, to the commanding officer for completion, final signature and delivery. A supply of blank certificates of discharge will be furnished the commanding officer at Mare Island by the Adjutant and Inspector of the Corps.

4. All business pertaining to these discharges will be transacted as expeditiously as possible.

5. The Commanding Officer, Marine Barracks, Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., will promptly transmit to this office, through the office of the Assistant Adjutant and Inspector, a report of the date and cause of every discharge issued by him, with a certified copy of the final statement of the account of the man concerned.

6. The Adjutant and Inspector, the Quartermaster and the Paymaster will issue to the assistant staff-officers of their respective departments such instructions concerning this subject as the former may deem necessary.

7. In order to afford ample time for the preparation of discharges and the settlement of accounts of men to be discharged upon expiration of enlistment, commanding officers of posts on the Atlantic and southern coasts of the United States, and all recruiting officers east of the Mississippi River, are hereby directed to forward to this office staff-returns of such enlisted men not less than twenty (20) days prior to the date upon which the discharges should occur.

8. Commanding officers of posts on the Pacific coast and all recruiting officers west of the Mississippi River, will forward to this office the descriptive lists or books and the clothing-accounts of such enlisted men not less than thirty-five (35) days prior to the date upon which the discharges should occur. The pay-accounts will be transmitted to the pay-officer concerned.

9. The following procedure will be observed in discharging general court-martial prisoners confined on board the U. S. S. Southery, the U. S. S. Nipsic, and in the naval prisons, navy yards, Portsmouth, N. H., Boston, Mass., and Mare Island, Cal., where the sentences involve loss of all allowances and dishonorable discharge:

(a) Upon the receipt of a communication reporting that such a man is to be discharged, the Major-General, Commandant, will send the usual order for discharge to the Adjutant and Inspector, who will, as soon as practicable, prepare and register the certificate of discharge and send it, without a letter of transmittal, to this office.

(b) Where the man is confined on board the U. S. S. Southery, or in the Naval Prison, Navy Yard, Portsmouth, N. H., this office will transmit the discharge certificate to the commanding officer of the "Southery," requesting him to complete the certificate and deliver it to the man as soon as his account has been settled by the pay-officer on board.

(c) Where the man is confined in the Naval Prison, Navy Yard, Boston, Mass., or on board the U. S. S. Wabash, this office will transmit the discharge certificate to the commanding officer of said vessel, requesting him to complete it and deliver it to the man as soon as his account has been settled by the pay-officer on board.

(d) Where the man is confined on board the U. S. S. Nipsic this office will transmit the discharge certificate to the commanding officer of said vessel, requesting him to complete it and deliver it to the man as soon as his account has been settled by the pay-officer on board.

(e) Where the man is confined in the Naval Prison, Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., this office will return the discharge certificate to the Adjutant and Inspector, who will forward it to the Assistant Paymaster, San Francisco, Cal. The latter will transmit it, together with a final statement of account, through the office of the Assistant Adjutant and Inspector, to the Commanding Officer, Marine Barracks, Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., for completion and delivery. In order that the Assistant Paymaster may be able to take the action above indicated, the commanding officer of said barracks will inform him in ample time that the man is to be discharged.

10. If in any case the Quartermaster has not already settled the man's clothing account and transmitted it to the pay-officer having the pay-account, he will do so immediately upon being informed that the man is to be discharged.

11. In all cases the staff-returns should be transmitted to this office as soon as practicable after discharge. On the Pacific coast they should be transmitted through the office of the Assistant Adjutant and Inspector.

12. The provisions of paragraphs 9, 10, and 11, above, do not apply to men who are transferred from stations outside the continental limits of the United States to the Marine Barracks, Navy Yard, Mare Island, Cal., merely for discharge in accordance with the sentence of a court-martial.

Major-General, Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 40.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON, October 19, 1909.

1. On August 8, 1908, the Comptroller of the Treasury decided (15 Comp. Dec. 81) that the Act of May 11, 1908, providing "that an enlistment shall not be regarded as complete until the soldier shall have made good any time lost during an enlistment period by unauthorized absences exceeding one day," applies to the Marine Corps.

2. The War Department has construed the part of the Act of May 11, 1908, above quoted, to apply only to enlistments entered upon after May 10, 1908, and decided that "if serving an enlistment entered upon prior to May 11, 1908," a man "can not be required, by sentence of court-martial or otherwise, to make good the time lost, except as provided in the 48th Article of War."

(See Paragraph 131, Army Regulations, 1908, which, as amended by General Orders Nos. 128 and 196, War Department, 1908, and so far as pertains to this subject, reads as follows:

"131. An enlisted man who absents himself from his post or company without authority will forfeit all pay and allowances accruing during such absence, and, unless serving an enlistment entered upon prior to May 11, 1908, will be required to make good the time lost by such absence. If serving an enlistment entered upon prior to May 11, 1908, he can not be required, by sentence of court-martial or otherwise, to make good the time lost, except as provided in the 48th Article of War; but the period of absence will not be regarded as service in the computation of continuous service pay under the laws existing prior to the act of Congress approved May 11, 1908, or for retirement. X X X "

See also the 48th Article of War, which reads as follows:

"Art. 48. Every soldier who deserts the service of the United States shall be liable to serve for such period as shall, with the time he may have served previous to his desertion, amount to the full term of his enlistment; and such soldier shall be tried by a court-martial and punished, although the term of his enlistment may have elapsed previous to his being apprehended and tried.")

3. This construction of the War Department regarding enlistments entered upon prior to May 11, 1908, is hereby adopted by the Marine Corps, and commanding officers of posts and stations of the Corps are accordingly directed to forward immediately to the Major-General Commandant, for discharge, the staff-returns of all men whose enlistments have expired, except men required to make good time lost as provided in the 48th Article of War, and to forward hereafter for discharge, upon the expiration of the terms of enlistment, regardless of any absences without leave, the staff-returns of all men who enlisted prior to May 11, 1908, except men required to make good time lost as provided in the 48th Article of War.

4. The total number of days of absence without leave during an enlistment will be noted under "Remarks" on the discharge certificate, and, in the proper place thereon, the fact that such time has been made good, or otherwise, will hereafter appear. Upon reenlistment of such a man, the recruiting officer, or officer enlisting him, will note this data in his descriptive book under the service record. A period of absence without leave, either in a current or a previous enlistment, must be considered, as heretofore, in determining the date such man is entitled to increase of pay for continuous service.

2. In pursuance of authority received from the Secretary of the Navy, it is directed that when a marine is transferred from any station outside the continental limits of the United States to the marine barracks, navy yard, Mare Island, Cal., for bad conduct discharge in accordance with the sentence of a summary court-martial, or to the U. S. S. INDEPENDENCE for dishonorable discharge in accordance with the sentence of a general court-martial, the commanding officer transferring him have his staff-returns closed for discharge (as far as practicable, and in time to allow the staff officers concerned to make any necessary corrections in them prior to the man's actual departure from the station) and forward them, together with a written statement of all available information concerning him that may be necessary for immediate discharge, so as to reach their destination with him, to the commanding officer of the above mentioned barracks or ship, as the case may require.

3. The Adjutant and Inspector will be furnished with a copy of this endorsement.

4. Upon the arrival of such a summary court-martial prisoner and his staff-returns at the marine barracks, navy yard, Mare Island, Cal., the commanding officer thereof, after taking the necessary data from the staff-returns, will distribute them among the three staff officers at San Francisco, Cal., sending the descriptive book to the Assistant Adjutant and Inspector, the clothing account to the Assistant Quartermaster, and the pay account to the Assistant Paymaster. The commanding officer will also prepare, sign and forward with the descriptive book a certificate of discharge, which certificate, after having been registered by the Assistant General court-martial prisoners in Honolulu, Guam and the Philippine Islands who have been sentenced to dishonorable discharge and are to be transferred to the West Coast of the United States for discharge pursuant to the terms of their sentences, will be transferred to the U. S. S. INDEPENDENCE, instead of to the marine barracks, navy yard, Mare Island, Cal., as heretofore.

8. The Adjutant and Inspector, the Quartermaster, and the Paymaster, U. S. M. C., will issue such instructions as they may deem necessary, concerning this subject, to the assistant staff officers of their respective departments.

9. In order to afford ample time for the preparation of discharges and the settlement of accounts of men to be discharged upon expiration of enlistment, commanding officers of posts on the Atlantic and southern coasts of the United States, and all recruiting officers east of the Mississippi River, are hereby directed to forward to this office the staff-returns of such enlisted men not less than twenty (20) days prior to the date upon which the discharges should occur.

10. Commanding officers of posts on the Pacific Coast and all recruiting officers west of the Mississippi River will forward to this office the descriptive-lists or books and the clothing-accounts of such enlisted men not less than thirty-five (35) days prior to the date upon which the discharges should occur. The pay-accounts will be transmitted to the pay-officer concerned.

11. The following procedure will be observed in discharging general court-martial prisoners confined on board the U. S. S. SOUTHERY, U. S. S. WABASH, U. S. S. HANCOCK, U. S. S. INDEPENDENCE, and U. S. S. NIPSIC, and in the naval prisons, navy yard, Portsmouth, N. H., navy yard, Boston, Mass., cob dock, navy yard, New York, and navy yard, Mare Island, Cal., where the sentences involve loss of all allowances and dishonorable discharge:

(a) Upon the receipt of a communication reporting that such a man is to be discharged, the Major-General, Commandant, will send the usual order for discharge to the Adjutant and Inspector, who will, as soon as practicable, prepare and register the certificate of discharge and send it, without a letter of transmittal, to this office.

(b) Where the man is confined on board one of the above named vessels this office will transmit the certificate of discharge by letter to the commanding officer of the vessel concerned, requesting him to complete the certificate and deliver it to the man as soon as his accounts have been settled by the pay-officer on board: if the man is confined in the naval prison, navy yard, Boston, Mass., such a letter will be addressed to the commanding officer of the U. S. S. WABASH: if the man is confined in the naval prison, cob dock, navy yard, New York, such a letter will be addressed to the commanding officer of the U. S. S. HANCOCK; if the man is confined in the naval prison, navy yard, Mare Island, Cal., such a letter will be addressed to the commanding officer of the U. S. S. INDEPENDENCE; if the man is confined in the naval prison, navy yard, Portsmouth, N. H., this office will transmit the certificate to the commanding officer of the prison, with directions to complete it and deliver it to the man as soon as his accounts have been settled by the pay-officer of the prison.

12. If in any case the Quartermaster has not already settled the man's clothing-account and transmitted it to the pay-officer having the pay-account, he will do so immediately upon being informed that the man is to be discharged.

13. In all cases the staff-returns should be transmitted to this office as soon as practicable after discharge. On the Pacific coast they shall be transmitted through the office of the Assistant Adjutant and Inspector.

14. The provisions of paragraphs 11, 12, and 13, above do not apply to men who are transferred from stations outside the continental limits of the United States to the U. S. S. INDEPENDENCE, navy yard, Mare Island, Cal., merely for discharge in accordance with the sentence of a general court-martial.

Major-General, Commandant.

"(1) In preparing official telegrams an excessive number of words is being used in addresses, thus unnecessarily increasing expenses. It is therefore directed that such telegrams, when intended for the Commandant, U. S. Marine Corps, be addressed 'Marine Corps, Washington, D. C.': for the Paymaster, 'Paymaster, Marine Corps, Washington, D. C.'

"(2) Addresses of telegrams to other officials shall contain only such words as are absolutely necessary to insure prompt and certain delivery; but neither code-words, nor abbreviations like 'Marcorps,' for example, shall be used in said addresses."

GENERAL ORDER
No. 44.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, November 23, 1909.

General Order No. 7, Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, January 27, 1909, as modified by General Order No. 13, Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, March 13, 1909, is amended to read as follows:—

1. On the transfer of an enlisted man from a post or a ship, the commanding officer of the post, or of the marine detachment of the ship, as the case may be, shall see that the marks under "Obedience," "Cleanliness," and "Sobriety" on the descriptive list, or in the descriptive book or the service-record, of the man correspond with such offenses, if any, as have been noted in the conduct-record accompanying said descriptive list, or in said book or service-record, during the period involved. The practice of entering "Less than a month" or "No service" when service at a post or on board a ship has been of brief duration shall be discontinued.

2. If record-practice has been held, the spaces for target-records on pages 6, 7, and 8 of the descriptive book, or on pages 20 and 21 of the service-record, shall be filled and the records signed, as provided in paragraph 10 (a), General Order No. 33, Navy Department, April 28, 1909. If record-practice has not been held, the commanding officer having the descriptive book or the service-record at the end of the target-year shall note across the proper space, "No record," and sign the notation.

3. When a man receives a special course of training in small-arms target-practice at a camp of instruction, and is a competent coach, an entry to that effect shall be made in his descriptive book or his service-record by the commanding officer of the camp. With the descriptive book the entry shall be made on a slip to be pasted opposite the page on which the target-records appear; with the service-record, on page 22, under "Remarks."

4. (a) As the presence of reenlisted men in a military organization conduces to discipline and efficiency, it is desired to encourage reenlistments in the Marine Corps, as far as practicable, by means of the increased compensation incident to the award of good-conduct medals and good-conduct medal bars. Hence it is deemed advisable that every man the average of whose markings for discharge is four and one-half (4 1-2) or over, be recommended for character "Excellent" and for a good-conduct medal or a bar, as the case may warrant.

(b) The latter statement, however, as far as the recommendation for a good-conduct medal is involved, does not apply (1) in the case of a man who, during his current enlistment, has been convicted by a naval general or summary, or an army general, garrison, or regimental, court-martial, and whose sentence has been approved by proper authority; nor (2) in the case of a man who, during his current enlistment, has been convicted by an army summary court-martial of an offense ordinarily punishable by a naval summary court, and whose sentence has been likewise approved.

(c) A man whose status is described in clause (b), but the average of whose markings for discharge is four and one-half (4 1-2) or over, is of course eligible for character "Excellent."

(d) A man who, during his current enlistment, has been convicted by a naval deck-court-martial, or by an army summary court-martial of an offense ordinarily punishable by the commanding officer under the Navy Regulations, and the average of whose markings for discharge is four and one half (4 1-2) or over, is eligible for both character "Excellent" and a good-conduct medal.

5. Before staff-returns are sent to the Major-General, Commandant, for discharge, the commanding officer of the post to which the man concerned is attached shall enter on the latter's descriptive list, or in his descriptive book or his service-record, as the case may be, the marks to which the man is entitled for service at that post. On the line next below said marks shall be entered, by the commanding officer, those to which the man appears to be entitled for his enlistment as an entirety. The latter marks shall be determined (a) by considering the individual markings of previous commanding officers, careful note being taken of their opportunities for forming their judgments, as indicated by the length of the periods of service under said officers. (Undue weight shall not be given to markings for service as a recruit.); (b) by considering such offenses, if any, as have been committed (with the punishments awarded therefor) and the general character of the service rendered.

Major-General, Commandant.

The following communication is published to the service:—

"NAVY DEPARTMENT,
"WASHINGTON, November 20, 1909.

"Sir:

"It has come to the notice of the Department on numerous occasions that convening and reviewing authorities have ordered summary courts-martial to reconvene for various illegal purposes, namely: to take additional testimony to show the degree of criminality involved, or to conclusively prove some minor point not covered in the original proceedings; to introduce evidence of previous conviction not shown to have been originally introduced and recorded: to disregard the accused's plea of 'guilty' on the ground that his statement is inconsistent therewith, and to proceed as though the plea had been 'not guilty,' etc.

"The courts have invariably followed the instructions contained in the order to reconvene.

"Article 1791, U. S. Navy Regulations, 1909, specifically states:

> "'1. When a court is ordered to review it's proceedings, new testimony shall not be brough forward in any shape.
> "'2. The revision shall be strictly confined to a reconsideration of the matter already recorded in the proceedings, no part of which is to be amended, altered or annulled in any way.'

"Any action taken in violation of the above quoted Article is indefensible and illegal and, of necessity, compels a disapproval of the entire proceedings with the consequent detriment to military discipline and efficiency.

"You will please cause the contents of this letter to be published to the officers under your command.

U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, December 14, 1909.

In accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 6 (b), General Order No. 33, Navy Department, April 28, 1909, there are published herewith, for the information and guidance of the service, paragraph 5, Circular No. 33, War Department, May 31, 1909, and the letter of October 6, 1909, from the Acting Secretary of War to the Honorable the Secretary of the Navy relative to the payment of extra compensation for qualification in marksmanship:—

"CIRCULAR NO. 33. WAR DEPARTMENT,
"WASHINGTON, May 31, 1909.

"The following decisions of the Secretary of War are published to the Army for the information and guidance of all concerned:

* * * * * * * * * * *

"5 PAYMENT OF EXTRA COMPENSATION FOR QUALIFICATION IN MARKSMANSHIP AS PROVIDED FOR IN PARAGRAPH 1, CIRCULAR NO. 7, WAR DEPARTMENT, 1909.—The provisions of paragraph 1, Circular No. 7, War Department, February 3, 1909, are construed so as to continue the payment of extra compensation for qualification in marksmanship until December 31, 1909, instead of during the remainder of the current enlistment, in the cases of all enlisted men who qualified in 1908, and who, subsequently to the date of qualification and prior to February 3, 1909, were reenlisted for or transferred to an organization armed with the rifle in which qualification is not authorized, or were transferred for the convenience of the Government to an organization not so armed; but no enlisted man who reenlists after February 3, 1909, in an organization armed with the rifle in which qualification is not authorized is entitled to such extra compensation after reenlistment. No modification of Circular No. 7, War Department, February 3, 1909, has been made in the case of men who have been or may be transferred, as hereinbefore indicated, after February 3, 1909, it being understood that such men are entitled to receive the extra compensation to the end of the enlistment in which they were serving at the time of transfer.

"BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

"J. FRANKLIN BELL,
"Major General, Chief of Staff.

"Official:
"HENRY P. MCCAIN,
"Adjutant General."

"WAR DEPARTMENT,
"WASHINGTON, October 6, 1909.

"SIR:

"With reference to your request No. 20965-8 of September 28, 1909, herewith, I have the honor to inform you as follows:

"1. The instructions of the War Deparment governing the classifications of men who attained qualifications in marksmanship in the target year 1908, issued with a view to bringing such men within the scope of Army Regulations 1365, as amended by G. O. 21, War Department, February 3, 1909, are found in paragraph 1 of Circular 7, War Department, February 3, 1909, which provides that:

> "'All enlisted men who qualified during the target season of 1908, and were entitled to extra compensation on January 1, 1909, will continue to receive such extra compensation during the remainder of their current enlistment, provided that during that time they do not attain a higher classification and that they continue to be members of an organization armed with the rifle, or are transferred for the convenience of the Government to some organization not so armed.'

"The term 'current enlistment' as used in the above quoted circular has reference to the enlistment in which a soldier is found to be serving on the date of said circular, February 3, 1909, and it is not essential that such enlistment be the one in which classification was attained in the regular practice season 1908. There is still another feature of this matter which is exemplified by a soldier who was discharged prior to January 1, 1909, and reenlisted within three months but after January 1, 1909. In this case it has been held by the Department that although the soldier was not actually in service on January 1, 1909, he was constructively in service on January 1, 1909, and therefore constructively entitled on such date to pay under his 1908 classification, and is held as coming within the scope of paragraph 1 of Circular 7, and G. O. 21, War Department, 1909.

"2. All men who qualified prior to 1908 and who were drawing increased compensation for holdover classifications on January 1, 1909, will continue to receive such extra compensation until December 31, 1909, or until the end of their enlistment, if the enlistment expires prior to December 31, 1909, and is not renewed.

"3. That in the case of Private John J. Haley, U. S. Marine Corps, referred to in the attached paper, who is understood to have qualified as sharpshooter in 1908 and to have reenlisted March 24, 1909, the practice in corresponding cases in the Army has been to continue to pay extra compensation as sharpshooter for one year from date of reenlistment, provided that in the target season of 1909 the man did not attain the classification of expert rifleman.

"4. The decision of the Secretary of War of March 30, 1909 (1499115) had particular reference to the pay of men whose extra compensation had lapsed December 31, 1908, or prior thereto, or who, on January 1, 1909, were receiving pay under a reduced classification granted in 1908. A soldier who under the terms of that decision was entitled to extra compensation for the remainder of his enlistment would, under the terms of paragraph 1365, Army Regulations, as amended by General Orders No. 21, War Department, 1909, continue to receive such extra compensation for one year from date of reenlistment, provided his reenlistment fulfilled the conditions named in said paragraph.

"Very respectfully,
"ROBERT SHAW OLIVER,
"Acting Secretary of War.

"The Honorable
"The Secretary of the Navy,
"Washington, D. C."

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

WASHINGTON, April 14, 1910.

1. Hereafter laundry, barber, shoemaker, and tailor services to enlisted men, at all shore stations of the Corps, will be assumed by the post-exchange, where such may exist; and such enlisted men or other persons as may perform these services within such commands will, upon such terms as may be agreed upon with the post-exchange officer and approved by the commanding officer of marines, be made employees of the post-exchange. Post-councils of administration will, at the same time, and subject to the approval of the commanding officer of marines, fix the prices post-exchanges shall receive for the services so assumed.

2. Wherever, by reason of the performance of the services here authorized, the indebtedness to a post-exchange (under the circumstances contemplated by Article 1465, paragraph 5, Navy Regulations, 1909) exceeds the limit of one-third of one month's pay, the checkage on pay-rolls of the amount of the actual indebtedness is authorized: but all transfer pay-accounts and post-exchange vouchers will show, under "Remarks," in each case, that the excess credit so checked includes laundry, barber, shoemaker, or tailor services to an amount to be there stated.

3. Checkages of the amounts of properly authorized credits may be made on pay-rolls against the accounts of men overpaid on transfer: but in such cases payments to the post-exchange will be deferred until the post-exchange officer supplies a certificate upon an approved form, from the station or vessel on which the man concerned is serving, after transfer, in effect that all his indebtedness to the United States has, on a stated date, been discharged.

Commanding officers of marines shall not forward to shore stations nor to ships, for collection, statements of indebtedness of transferred enlisted men, save proper indebtednesses of such men to the post-traders at the Marine Barracks, Washington, D. C., and the Navy Yard, Mare Island, California.

5. The semi-annual report of the condition of post-exchanges rendered to these Headquarters shall be accompanied by detailed statements of all unliquidated indebtednesses to such exchanges, giving the names of the persons from whom stated amounts are due, and the reason for the failure to collect same.

WASHINGTON, April 22, 1910.

1. Of the expeditionary brigade sent to Panama and Nicaragua in December last, eight enlisted men, within two months from the date of departure from the United States, had to be surveyed for flat-foot. Because of this condition, they were unable to do ordinary guard duty, and could not have accompanied their respective detachments on the march, nor have participated in any other arduous service that might have been required.

2. While the physical defect above mentioned should have been detected on examination for enlistment, if it then existed, it is quite possible that it may have been acquired since enlistment; and it is evident that, had the men concerned been required to engage in practice-marches at their home stations, said defect would have been discovered, and men physically so deficient would not have been sent into the field.

3. It is therefore directed, that, hereafter, whenever practicable, practice-marches be held regularly at all posts; said marches to be of such frequency, and the details of men therefor to be so made, that each member of the command will participate in a practice-march at least once in two weeks. The initial march shall be of such length as may, in the opinion of the commanding officer, be necessary; subsequent marches to be lengthened until the men become well "hardened."

4. Incident to these practice-marches, the officers and men shall, in the discretion of the commanding officer, be given instruction in map-making, map-reading, the service of security and information, and in estimating distances.

5. If the detachment available for this service be not equal in size to a small company, such detachment shall nevertheless be exercised and instructed as above set forth: such officers as may be available being also detailed, and being employed to conduct estimating-distance drill and other instructions, as outlined in the preceeding paragraph.

6. Practice-marches shall be conducted throughout the year, unless, in the opinion of the commanding officer, the weather be so hot, cold, or otherwise inclement as to endanger the health of the members of the detachment.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

GENERAL ORDER
NO. 60.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, June 7, 1910.

1. From and after the promulgation hereof, the calender year shall, for purposes of instruction in the Marine Corps, be divided into a period of theoretical instruction and a period of practical instruction.

THEORETICAL INSTRUCTION.

2. The period of theoretical instruction shall commence on the first of November, and shall continue until the first of April, of each year. During this period, all line officers of the Marine Corps below field rank shall constitute, at each post, a class for instruction, which class shall assemble for recitation or lecture for a period of two (2) hours, on each of two afternoons in every week, such afternoons to be designated by the commanding officer, and to be other than Saturday, Sunday, or legal holidays.

3. If there be a field officer in addition to the commanding officer attached to the garrison, such field officer shall act as instructor under the direction of the commanding officer. If there be two or more field officers in addition to the commanding officer attached to the garrison, then the commanding officer shall designate the field officer best qualified for such service to act as instructor. If there be no field officer attached to the garrison, or none other than the commanding officer, then the latter shall himself act as instructor, unless there be in the garrison, available for detail, a captain duly qualified to act as instructor (and of such qualification the commanding officer shall first duly assure himself), in which event such captain may be detailed as instructor. At every post having more than one commissioned line officer carried on its strength and available for duty, the instruction herein outlined shall be regularly conducted.

4. The course of instruction shall comprehend the following, viz.:

(a) Instruction in Applied Tactics. In this connection, one problem will be assigned each week, the solution to be turned in by the student officer, neatly worked out in ink.

(b) Military Essays. In this connection, the instructor will assign for reading by the student a designated section of a standard military author, and will require the student to submit twice each month an essay on the section so assigned. Such essay shall be based upon the text, expressed in the student's own phraseology, and amplified by, or compared with, the opinions of other standard authors, or the student's own reflections on the subject.

(c) Essays and problems shall be marked not only on the basis of their merit from a military standpoint, but account shall also be taken, in arriving at such mark, of the neatness, sentence structure, phraseology, and correctness of the result turned in by the student.

(d) Instruction, in the form of recitations, on—

Field Service Regulations (first six weeks);
Ordnance and Gunnery (second six weeks);
Torpedoes and Tubes (fourth month);
Military Law (fifth month).

5. During the term 1910-11, the following works will be used in the subjects indicated, viz:

(a) Applied Tactics—Army Service Schools Problems;

(b) Essays—"Military Operations and Maritime Preponderance" by Callwell;

(c) Field Service Regulations—Government Publication of 1908;

(d) Ordnance and Gunnery—Fullam and Hart, and Bureau of Ordnance (U. S. N.) Pamphlets;

(e) Torpedoes and Tubes—Bureau of Ordnance (U. S. N.) Pamphlets;

(f) Military Law—Dudley's Military Law, and Forms of Procedure, U. S. Navy.

6. The periods of two hours on two days each week shall be used as recitation or lecture periods, study and preparation therefor being done at other times.

PRACTICAL INSTRUCTION.

7. The period of practical instruction shall commence on the first of April, and shall continue until the first of November, each year.

8. During this period, officers shall be instructed in—

(a) Practical Field Exercises, Including conducting patrols;

(b) Intrenching;

(c) Knotting and splicing;

(d) Putting up shelter tents;

(e) Signalling with flag, heliograph and acetylene night signal lamps;

(f) Target-practice and estimating distance.

9. It is to be understood that the foregoing does not preclude the imparting of other and additional instruction, either theoretical or practical, but only indicates a minimum of instruction which shall be completed.

10. A monthly report of the foregoing instruction shall be submitted hereto by the instructor, through the commanding officer, which report shall indicate the mark attained in each subject, and the average mark for the month. All markings shall be made on a scale of "4." In the event that any officer shall attain a mark of less than "2.5" for any given month in any subject, the commanding officer will call upon such officer for such statement, if any, as he may desire to submit in that connection; will transmit such statement, together with his own recommendation in the premises, to the Major-General, Commandant; and will give such failure due weight in the preparation of the Report of Fitness of the officer in question.

11. Regularly constituted schools of the Marine Corps having prescribed courses, and their respective personnel, are exempted from the provisions hereof.

12. In the tropics, the period of theoretical instruction shall extend from the first of May until the first of October, and the period of practical instruction from the first of October until the first of May, of each year.

13. Officers shall supply their own text-books for this instruction, and shall report in writing to their respective commanding officers, not later than one month prior to the date of commencement of the course each year, that such books have been secured by them.

14. Upon the conclusion of the course each year, the final essay of each officer shall, after having been marked by the instructor, be forwarded to the Major-General, Commandant, for consideration at Headquarters.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON. December 13, 1910.

1. Qualification attained by an officer, under General Order No. 33, Navy Department, 1909, does not expire, but, for the purpose of determining the course which an officer shall fire during each season, the provisions of paragraph 345, Provisional Small Arms Firing Manual, 1909, U. S. Army, will be construed so that an officer who fails to complete the required course each year will fall back one grade in classification. Thus, an officer who qualified as a marksman in 1908 entered the season of 1909 with the assumed qualification of marksman, and should therefore have taken the sharpshooter's course: In the event that he qualified as a sharpshooter, he should then have taken the expert rifleman's test: Had he failed to qualify as a sharpshooter he remained classified as a marksman. Had the officer who qualified as a marksman in 1908 failed to take the sharpshooter's course in 1909, he entered the season of 1910 with no classification, and should have begun his season's firing with the marksman's course. This is done in order that an officer who qualified at some time, and has had a lapse of one or more years in his firing, and has therefore not kept in touch with the various changes in the firing regulations. may be required to familiarize himself with such changes.

2. Care will be taken that the records of officers' firing each year, whether they succeed in qualifying or not, are forwarded to these headquarters.

BEEKMAN WINTHROP,
Assistant Secretary of the Navy.

GENERAL ORDER
No. 73.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, December 14, 1910.

1. Empty cartridge cases, empty packing boxes, bandoleers and brass clips, pertaining to the ammunition supplied by the Ordnance Department of the Army, for model 1903 rifle, accruing from the expenditure of ball cartridges, cal. .30, model 1906, in target practice in the Marine Corps, will be carefully preserved and returned to the Quartermaster's Department of the Marine Corps.

2. The following instructions will be observed with reference to the preparing and shipping of the articles specified above:

> As soon as practicable after the completion of the firing, decap the cartridge cases and throw them into water. The cleaning will be much facilitated if this is done immediately after firing. Then thoroughly clean the interior of each case with a brush wiper or a piece of rag on the end of a wiping stick, dry, and pack in empty ammunition boxes. Bandoleers and clips will not be packed in the boxes together with cartridge cases. Where bandoleers and clips are packed in the same box the clips will be wrapped separately in paper. Care should be taken that the zinc lining of the packing boxes is not injured. The lining and zinc cover should be retained in the box when the empty cartridge cases, bandoleers and clips are packed therein. Empty cartridge cases and clips should be invoiced in all cases by weight instead of number. The weights of cartridge cases and clips by the thousand are as follows:
> Empty cartridge cases, cal. .30, model 1906, 27 lbs.
> Clips, ... 19 lbs.

3. The above-mentioned articles accruing from target practice on the east coast of the United States and in Caribbean waters will be shipped by freight to the Depot Quartermaster, U. S. Marine Corps, 1100 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa.; from the west coast of the United States, Honolulu, T. H., and Alaska, by freight to the Depot Quartermaster, U. S. Marine Corps, 182 Second Street, San Francisco, Cal., and from the Philippine Islands and Peking, China, to the Depot Quartermaster, U. S. Marine Corps, Cavite, P. I.

MARINE CORPS

SPECIAL ORDERS.

SPECIAL ORDER.
NO. 1.

HEADQUARTERS,
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, November 16, 1908.

The attention of the Major General, Commandant, has been called to an article in the public press which may or may not be true, the said article stating that marine officers would seek legislation providing that marine detachments be again placed on board ships.

The undersigned believes that it is his duty to call attention to the fact that such proceedings are in violation of the regulations, offensive to military discipline, and contrary to the motto of the Corps; for "Semper Fidelis" would be but a meaningless term if it shone only on the sunny side of life or duty.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major General, Commandant.

SPECIAL ORDER
NO. 2.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, November 16, 1908.

It is directed that hereafter before any Marine Corps pamphlets are sent out to applicants for enlistment all matter contained therein relating to the life and duties of marines on board ships of the Navy be stricken out.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General. Commandant.

SPECIAL ORDER
No. 3.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, January 9, 1909.

The Secretary of the Navy having temporarily loaned to the Marine Corps the Naval Station at Port Royal, South Carolina, and having authorized and directed that said station shall be commanded by the senior officer of the Corps ordered there, that post is hereby designated as the MARINE OFFICERS' SCHOOL, PORT ROYAL, SOUTH CAROLINA, and the title of the senior marine officer in command will be THE COMMANDING OFFICER.

Said school will have the same status, in relation to the Major-General, Commandant, as the Marine Barracks, Washington, D. C.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

SPECIAL ORDER
NO. 4.

HEADQUARTERS,
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, January 19, 1909.

1. All officers of the Marine Corps are called upon to submit to the Inspector of Target Practice a report, showing the names of enlisted men recommended by them as candidates for the Marine Corps Rifle Team, which will compete in the National Match of 1909; or a statement to the effect that they have no names to recommend.

2. The report will state the names of men recommended in order of preference, and officers may recommend as many candidates as they wish; but officers should limit their recommendations to the highest grade of material, including only those men whom they believe to have a reasonable chance of winning a place on the team, or whose aptitude specially fits them to receive instruction, and to impart it to others.

3. Recommendations need not be confined to men now serving with the officers who recommend them, but may include any men with whom they have previously served.

4. Officers of, and below the grade of captain, may, if they so desire, indicate their desire to become candidates for the team.

5. It is intended to assemble as great a number as practicable of officers and men as candidates for try out and instruction, early in the spring, with a view of affording instruction to candidates, designed not only to prepare them for the matches, but to prepare them for duty as instructors and coaches, when distributed to their respective stations.

6. Recommendations should not be based solely on records or standing of men in past practice. The preliminary course is designed to instruct and develop the candidates, and the general estimate officers have of men's aptitude or fitness for the work, is regarded as a better guide for probable efficiency than can be gotten from past classification, where the conditions of firing were not equal.

7. Generally the type desired are men capable of development. Specifically, they should have evidenced interest in target practice; should be men of good habits and records; not addicted to the use of intoxicants; not disturbers or promoters of dissatisfaction; should be tractable men who will yield readily to teaching and training; young men are preferred to older men. They should be early in their enlistments, or men who will probably reenlist, because the training expended upon them should be of future value to the Corps. They should possess a fair education, such as will enable them to study understandingly any lessons assigned, and to keep an intelligent record of their work in score books. They should be of industrious temperaments: lazy men will find that the requirements of the work will be exacting, and are liable to become disaffected, and to spread that feeling. Recruits who possess the above qualifications should not be disciminated against because they are recruits.

8. Accompanying report showing names of men recommended, in the order recommended, there will be attached a separate sheet for each individual recommended, and on this sheet should be given complete information which will be of assistance to the Inspector of Target Practice in selecting list of candidates. This statement will include name, rank, present station (if known), approximate date of enlistment (if known), approximate age; what interest man has shown in target practice; his habits and record; some information as to the degree of education possessed; whether he will probably continue in service, after expiration of present enlistment, and a brief statement of amount of practice, with places, approximate dates (year), qualification, and under what officer the practice was held; also a general estimate of character and aptitude. Each individual report will be signed by the offiicer making it; then each complete report will be forwarded through immediate commanding officers, and by them addressed direct to tne Inspector of Target Practice, Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps, after such comments as they wish to make are endorsed thereon.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major General, Commandant.

SPECIAL ORDER
No. 13.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, May 11, 1909.

For the information of the officers of the U. S. Marine Corps, the following letter from the office of the Judge Advocate General, U. S. Army, is herewith published:

"WAR DEPARTMENT,

"OFFICE OF THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE GENERAL,

"Washington,

"April 2, 1909.

"To—

"The Adjutant-General.

"Sir:

"I have the honor to express the following opinion on the question of the assumption of command of the troops on board the U. S. Army Transport 'Kilpatrick', by an officer of the Marine Corps, who was on duty with one of the organizations attached for service with the army in Cuba:

"Major C. De W. Willcox, General Staff Corps, and Captains A. T. Marix, Marine Corps, and W. T. Bates, 27th U. S. Infantry, were passengers on the U. S. Army Transport 'KILPATRICK' which sailed from Newport News, August 1 and arrived at Havana, Cuba, August 5, 1908. No officer had been assigned in orders to the command of the troops on board the transport.

"Captain Marix has submitted a claim for subsistence during the trip, and a question is at once raised by the Auditor for the Navy Department as to whether he was in command during the time in question.

"If Captain Marix had not been on board, Captain W. T. Bates, 27th Infantry, would have assumed command in obedience to the requirements of paragraph 225, U. S. A. Transport Regulations, and paragraph 1, Circular No. 88, series of 1908, War Department, as Major C. De W. Wilcox, a general staff officer, had not been assigned as such to command, and could not assume command under his commission in the artillery.

"When a line officer becomes a general staff officer, he cannot take with him the right to command, as it is inconsistent with the duties and obligations of the new status.

This is true even if he becomes a general staff officer for a period of time only, in which case the right to command remains in abeyance from the time when the officer passes from the status of a line officer to his return to that status when the right to command attaches.

"Captain Marix being a marine officer could not, by virtue of seniority in the general case, assume command over officers and men of the army. Neither could he in the general case under paragraph 225, U. S. A. Transport Regulations, assume command of the army troops on board a transport. The commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy is the only common superior of a marine officer and an army officer. He is authorized in Section 1610 of the Revised Statutes to assign marines to shore duty, and in Section 1621 of the Revised Statutes to detach them for service with the army.

"Ordinarily, the marines are, by Section 1621 of the Revised Statutes, subject to the laws and regulations established for the navy; but when detached for service with the army, they are subject to the 'rules and the articles of war,' which is that part of the law found in Section 1342 of the Revised Statutes. These provisions of the law do not make the Marine Corps subject to the regulations established for the army. In Section 1620 of the Revised Statutes, however, 'The President is authorized to prescribe such military regulations for the discipline of the Marine Corps as he may deem expedient.' The President detached certain organizations of the Marine Corps for shore duty with the Army of Cuban Pacification, and by so doing, delegated to the Commanding General, Army of Cuban Pacification, authority to command them. The enclosed papers do not show that the regulations published for the guidance of the army, were made applicable to those organizations of marines. The commanding general had authority over them, and would have ordered that they would be governed by the transport regulations equally with the army when applicable, but nothing in these papers indicates that he issued such an order. The commanding general could have assigned Captain Marix to command troops on board the transport if he were the senior, or he could have directed that Captain Marix should be subject on the transport to the transport regulations, as though he were an army officer, but nothing in these papers indicates that he issued such an order.

"Thus, there is nothing in these papers to indicate that eligibility to command officers or enlisted men of the army had been conferred on Captain Marix, from the power of command which had been delegated by the President to the Commanding General, Army of Cuban Pacification. Without a delegation of such power which could be traced through the Commanding General, Army of Cuban Pacification, to the President, Captain Marix was without authority to assume command over troops on that transport, unless the 122d Article of War should apply to his case.

> "'If, upon marches, guards, or in quarters, different corps of the Army happen to join or do duty together, the officer highest in rank of the line of the Army, Marine Corps, or militia, by commission, there on duty or in quarters, shall command the whole, and give orders for what is needful to the service, unless otherwise specially directed by the President, according to the nature of the case.'
> (122d Article of War.)

"This article contemplates a contingency where officers of different corps of the army meet together, with no officer among them who is a common superior. In the absence of some express provision conferring the power, no officer of a corps would have the right, in such a contingency, to command any troops other than his own. To meet this difficulty, the article provides that in such an event the officer highest in rank of his corps and of all the corps, shall command the whole. If there be a general officer present, who does not belong to any particular corps, the case contemplated by the article does not exist: as he would take command by authority of the general rule which assigns command to the officer highest in rank. The article, however, is broad enough to include the contingency of the joining or doing duty together, of corps of the Army, Marine Corps, or militia. And in that contingency it provides that the officer of the line highest in rank of his corps and of all the corps shall command the whole.

"The following transposition of the article does no violence to its meaning in this respect, but brings out a little more clearly the fact that, as a prerequisite to command under the 122nd Article of War the officer must be on duty in command of one of the corps which happen to join or do duty together.

> 'If different corps of the Army, Marine Corps, or militia join or do duty together upon marches, guards, or in quarters, the officer highest in rank by the commission of the line of the Army, Marine Corps or militia, which is there on duty on marches, guards, or in quarters, shall command the whole and give orders for what is needed in the service, unless otherwise specially directed by the President, according to the nature of the case.'

"The contingency contemplated by the 122d Article of War as regards the Marine Corps did not happen on this transport, as no corps or organization of the Marine Corps was there present. Captain Marix was not there on duty with any organization of marines. He had availed himself of leave of absence in the United States and was returning to duty with his organization in Cuba, and was not in the exercise of command which could, by the operation of that article, be extended over the whole, but was the recipient of the privilege of having the date of the ending of his leave fixed at the sailing date. He was merely a military passenger, whose status, i. e., detached service for the purpose of increasing the length of his leave on shore in the United States, was not such a status of duty as could cause the obligation in the 122d Article of War to attach to him.

"I am therefore of the opinion that on the showing made in these papers, Captain A. T. Marix, Marine Corps, was without authority to assume command of the troops on board the transport KILPATRICK on the trip in question.

"Very Respectfully,
"GEO. B. DAVIS,
"Judge-Advocate General.

SPECIAL ORDER
NO. 18.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, September 13, 1909.

It is directed that at shore stations the oldest ammunition on hand be used in preliminary practice and collective fire, and, if found to be fairly accurate, in the record practice at the shorter ranges. If such oldest ammunition shall be found sufficiently accurate, it shall be used in record practice at the longer ranges; otherwise, ammunition of more recent manufacture, if available, will be used for record firing at the longer ranges.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

SPECIAL ORDER
NO. 19.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHNIGTON, September 17, 1909.

1. The accompanying table exhibits the result of the Marine Corps Rifle Competition, held at Sea Girt, N. J., June 26, 1909.

2. Appropriate badges will be issued to the competitors named, in accordance with paragraph 275, Small Arms Firing regulations, U. S. Army, 1908.

3. The Small Arms Firing Regulations, U. S. Army, 1908, provide that the Army Rifle Team (to which the Marine Corps Rifle Team corresponds), shall be composed of enlisted men. These regulations, however, permit commissioned officers to fire with the enlisted men, and provide that "any commissioned competitor making a score equal to or greater than that of any enlisted member of the team will receive a medal like that awarded to such member." In the following table the prize winning officer is given the same order as that given to the enlisted competitor whose score is equalled or exceeded, the fact that the order is that of a commissioned competitor being indicated by the letter "a" accompanying the numeral representing the order.

5. The qualification of Private Charles W. Wood, announced as that of sharpshooter in Special Order No. 20, Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, October 1, 1909, was correctly announced as that of expert rifleman in Special Order No. 22, Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, November 15, 1909.

CIRCULAR
No. 2.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, June 25, 1910.

1. The increasing number of applications received at these headquarters through other than official channels, requesting discharges, promotions, transfers, furloughs, details for special duty, and other special privileges for enlisted men, renders it necessary to call the attention of commanding officers of marines ashore to this reprehensible practice.

2. Any enlisted man who, without seeking the direction or advice of his commanding officer, endeavors to bring outside influence to bear in order to advance his personal interests is guilty not only of a total disregard of military discipline, but of an actual infraction of regulations. It is therefore the desire and the intent of the Commandant of the Corps that the practice in question be repressed; and, with this end in view, the Commandant will hereafter, in every instance, refer to commanding officers any communications of the nature mentioned which concern enlisted men attached to the posts under their command, in order that commanding officers may report whether or not the requests contained therein have been presented to them, and, if so, what action they have seen fit to take in each case.

3. Requests for the discharge of enlisted men are based on a variety of reasons, but, except in a very few cases, they are unaccompanied by anything in corroboration of the writers' statements; and it therefore becomes necessary to refer them to the commanding officers of the men concerned for comment and recommendation.

4. In view of the foregoing, it is directed that, hereafter, when such a communication is referred to a commanding officer, or when an enlisted man makes formal application for discharge (by purchase or otherwise), the commanding officer make careful inquiry into the case, by personal interrogation and by such other proper means as may suggest themselves; and, having satisfied himself that the case is one which may properly be submitted to these headquarters, the commanding officer will require the man to submit with his formal application the affidavits of responsible and disinterested persons who have actual knowledge of the circumstances. These affidavits will be forwarded with the application and with an expression of the commanding officer's opinion as to the merits of the case.

5. In general, the Commandant of the Corps does not approve of the discharge of enlisted men prior to the expiration of their enlistments, except when such action would operate to relieve conditions of destitution or hardship; and in such cases it is of the greatest importance that the Commandant be informed as to whether or not the man concerned has, during his enlistment, contributed to the support of his family, and, if so, to what extent.

6. In this connection, attention is called to Article 1420, U. S. Navy Regulations, 1909.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

CIRCULAR
No. 3. (Confidential)

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON, July 2, 1910.

1. The corps is at present about 400 men short of the number authorized by law, 9521. This shortage is not unusual at this season of the year; and the reason generally ascribed for the annual falling-off is the desertion of men who enlist with the intention of remaining in the service through the winter months only. The reason just indicated is doubtless the real one, in numerous cases; yet it is believed that the present desertions are due, in part, to other causes; and in an effort to remedy this condition, we must start at the beginning—the enlistment. If the recruiting officer does his work perfectly, desertions chargeable to misinformation at the time of enlistment will be prevented and much good accomplished. During the months of May and June, 1910, respectively, there were:—

302	412	enlistments.
12	13	joined from desertion.
314	425	total.
204	118	discharges (expiration of enlistment).
37	155	discharges (other causes).
157	176	desertions.
398	449	loss.
84	24	net loss.

2. Recently several cases have developed where men have claimed that, upon enlistment, they were encouraged to believe that they thereby bettered their chances of obtaining commissions in the corps, or that, having stated their previous occupations as stenographer, clerk, etc., they were impressed with the idea that they would soon be assigned to duty allowing them extra compensation. Applicants must not be given to understand that they thus improve their chances of obtaining commissions; and the matter of extra-duty pay must only be mentioned with the greatest caution.

3. It is believed that, to a very great extent, the desertion of recruits is due to non-realization, after enlistment, of the conditions as represented at the recruiting office. To describe the service to an applicant by dwelling upon its unpleasant features only would be prejudicial to the interests of the government; yet to represent the service in its most favorable light only is not fair to the recruit, while it works great injury to the corps, causing unnecessary expense in the enlistment of men who desert because of dissatisfaction, and rendering recruiting more difficult, through the return of such deserters to their homes, where they naturally injure the corps and the naval and military service in general by reciting their dissatisfaction and alleged grievances to their friends and acquaintances. All members of recruiting parties should therefore be instructed to represent to applicants for enlistment the actual facts only, describing clearly and honestly all features of the service—the nature of the duty,—sea, shore, and foreign,—its pleasant and unpleasant features; pay, allowances, benefits, etc.; discipline, and the punishments inflicted for infractions thereof, including, particularly, absence without leave and desertion; discharges, the several forms, their significance, etc.

4. In addition to such physical examination as may be given an applicant by the recruiting officer, the former should, as above stated, be carefully instructed by the recruiting officer as to the details and duties of service-life, explaining that, in barracks or in the field, enlisted men are often called upon to perform every duty incident to the care and preservation of barracks or camps; in other words, that every garrison constitutes a separate community, largely independent of the outside world, and, that, therefore, the duty incident to the maintenance of a barracks or a camp devolves upon the men composing it. It is not believed that sufficient knowledge of this nature can be imparted in less than one-half or three-fourths of an hour; and this must be done either personally by the recruiting officer or by a competent enlisted man in his presence and under his direct observation.

5. Great care should be exercised in relation to the enlistment of minors, proof of age being required whenever an applicant appears younger than he represents himself to be. In this connection, it may be noted that, on several occasions, enlisted men have stated that they were advised, by members of recruiting parties, to misrepresent their age, in order that they might be considered eligible for enlistment.

6. Annoyance and unnecessary expense have been caused, in some cases, by the unsatisfactory work of civilian medical examiners employed on recruiting duty; and, to a great extent, this condition can be remedied by recruiting officers' giving aid and advice to such examiners, and by personally examining recruits passed by inexperienced examiners.

7. Recruiting duty is one of the most important assignments that can be given an officer. His duty is the first—the procuring of good men. If this is properly done, other officers can easily attend to the men's future, and build up and maintain a creditable service. The duties of a recruiting officer do not end when he has opened an office, procured office equipment and assistants, inserted a "want ad" in several papers, and sworn in such men as may have entered his office and expressed a desire to enlist. Such an officer should be energetic and resourceful. He has a field of his own, and, to a certain extent, is independent. He should study the industrial conditions of his district, with a view to establishing substations at proper places and at proper times.

8. Enlisted men should not be detailed in charge of substations until they have demonstrated, at the headquarters office, their efficiency. Men should be required to deport themselves creditably, and be of neat appearance, at all times. This may not secure recruits, but it redounds to the credit of the corps, which is an even greater advantage.

9. The best advertising is within the reach of all recruiting officers at practically no cost. The service of the Marine Corps offers much to men of good character, properly enlisted; and the affairs of the Navy and Marine Corps are of constant interest to the public. Therefore, if a resourceful recruiting officer, from time to time, writes articles illustrating service-life and experiences, and furnishes photographs when practicable, he will find that prominent papers will often be glad to have the necessary cuts made, and will publish the best of all advertisements free of charge. This is particularly true of Sunday editions of the newspapers of the larger cities. Papers published in the rural districts desire, rather, personals and information concerning men of the neighborhoods who have previously enlisted. Items setting forth, for instance, that John Smith, who enlisted two years ago, as a private, and who is now a corporal, has served in Nicaragua and Panama, and on board the ARIZONA and the NEW MEXICO, and has cruised around the world, will be gladly published and will bring desirable results. Anecdotes related in their own language, by enlisted men of the recruiting district, often produce desirable results; and proper action and recognition by the recruiting officer will frequently bring forth valuable aid from this source.

10. Above all, good officers must be assigned to recruiting duty, and must be furnished with the best of enlisted men as assistants. They must keep these men up to the mark, and ask for their transfer and relief if their usefulness or their attention to duty relaxes.

11. Not all of our recruiting officers work their districts to the best advantage. It is therefore hoped that a careful consideration of the above, and a more thorough realization of the importance of their duties on the part of such officers, will result not only in an improvement of our recruiting service, but in so bringing our corps before the public that it will be its own argument for honest efficiency, whether in the recruiting district, the barracks, at sea, or in the field.

12. In conclusion: The preceding observations and comments are by no means to be construed as a sweeping condemnation of all officers and men on recruiting duty, but rather as a general review of the recruiting service, based upon important points which, from time to time, have been brought, officially and unofficially, to the attention of this office, and which are confidentially communicated to the officers of the corps, for their information and guidance.

G. F. ELLIOTT,
Major-General, Commandant.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, January 6, 1911.

The following is published for the information of the service:—

"Office of the Secretary.

"DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY,
"Washington,
"December 31, 1910.

"From Acting Secretary of the Navy.
"To Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps.

"SUBJECT: Place of enlistment of men examined and accepted at Denver, Colorado, but sworn in at Salt Lake City, Utah.

"The Department has considered the question presented by the Marine recruiting officer, District of Utah, in his letter of November 23, 1910, forwarded to the Department by endorsement of Colonel William P. Biddle. U. S. Marine Corps, dated December 12, 1910.

"As shown by the correspondence in this case, a doubt has arisen in regard to the proper entry, as to the place of enlistment, which should be made on the enlistment papers of certain men, who 'were examined and accepted at Denver, Colo., and were ordered to stop over at Salt Lake City, Utah, en route to Mare Island, Calif., for the purpose of being sworn in only.'

"This question is of importance, among other things, in determining the place to which these men will be entitled to travel allowance upon discharge.

"The act of March 2, 1901 (31 Stat., 902), which is applicable to the Marine Corps, contains the following provision:

> "'That hereafter * * * an enlisted man when discharged from the service, except by way of punishment for an offense, shall receive four cents per mile from the place of his discharge to the place of enlistment, enrollment, or muster into the service.'

"'The words 'enlist' and 'enlistment,' in the law, as in common usage, may signify either the complete fact of entering into the military service, or the first step taken by the recruit towards that end.' (Tyler v. Pomeroy et al., 8 Allen, 480; Coe v. U. S., 44 C. Cls. 419.) That the word 'enlistment' as used in the provision above quoted from the act of March 2, 1901, was intended to have the broader meaning is made plain by the use of the word 'enrollment' in the same connection. 'The enrollment of a person for service in the volunteer army is only a proposal to enter such service—a declaration of his readiness to do so. He may or he may not carry this out and enter the service by muster-in. He may refuse to carry it out, and he does not thereby become a deserter.' (Opinion of Judge Advocate General of the Army, October 6, 1900; War Dept. Cir., March 23, 1901.)

"By the provisions of Section 1609 of the Revised Statutes and Section 25 of the Navy personnel act of March 3, 1899, enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps are required to take the same oath which is provided by law for enlisted men of the Army. The oath of allegiance prescribed for enlisted men of the Army is contained in article 2 of the Articles of War (Section 1342, R. S.), which provides that said oath is to be taken 'by every enlisted man at the time of, or within six days after, his enlistment.' It will thus be seen that Congress has used the word 'enlistment' in this article as having reference to an act separate and distinct from the taking of the prescribed oath of allegiance.

"In view of the foregoing, the Department decides that the men in question were enlisted at Denver, Colorado, within the meaning of the law allowing mileage on discharge. (5 Comp. Dec. 116). This is in accordance with a decision rendered by the Department on March 30, 1905 (file 1096-JAG), concerning dates of enlistment of certain men in the Navy. The decision in question read in part as follows:

> "'It appears that Trampp signed the shipping articles on board the 'Rainbow' December 27, 1904, but did not take the oath of allegiance until the next day.
> "'While the personnel act of March 3, 1899, section 25, requires that an oath of allegiance shall be administered to enlisted men of the Navy, there appears to be no provision of law that postpones the taking effect of an enlistment until such oath is taken. Trampp should be taken up for pay and rations from the date he signed the shipping articles, December 27, which is regarded as the date of his enlistment.'

"The foregoing is also in full accord with the decisions of the Supreme Court in the cases of U. S. v. Flanders (112 U. S. 88) and U. S. v. Eaton (169 U. S. 331) and decisions of the Comptroller of the Treasury based thereon (4 Comp. Dec. 496; 8 id. 199), with reference to the oath of office and execution of bond required of public officers.

U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON, March 27, 1911.

The following decisions are published for the information of the service:—

"TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
"OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF TREASURY
"March 4, 1911.

"The Auditor for the Navy Department submitted for approval, disapproval or modification his decision, dated the 25th ultimo, making an original construction of a statute as follows:

" 'Glen W. Garrison, late private, U. S. M. C., has made claim to this office for travel pay from Salt Lake City, Utah, to Denver, Col., on his discharge January 23, 1911, at Mare Island, Cal.

" 'The facts are as follows:

" 'On November 21, 1910, the claimant presented himself for enlistment in the United States Marine Corps at Denver, Col., and expressed his intention to enlist in the following declaration:

" " 'I, Glen Willis Garrison, desiring to enlist in the United States Marine Corps for the term of four years, do declare that I have neither wife nor child, and that there is no one dependent upon me for support; that I am of the legal age to enlist, and believe myself to be physically qualified to perform the duties of an able bodied marine; and I further declare that I am of good habits and character in all respects and have never deserted from the United States service (Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Revenue Cutter Service) or have been discharged therefrom or from any other service civil or military on account of disability, or through sentence of either civil or military court, nor discharged from any service, civil or military, except with good character, and for the reasons given by me to the recruiting officer; and that I am a native born citizen of the United States.' It further appears that his medical examination was had at Denver, Col. Subsequent to his declaration of intention to enlist and medical examination, and while enroute from Denver, Col., to Mare Island, Cal., Navy Yard, claimant with other recruits was ordered to stop over at Salt Lake City, Utah, for the purpose of being sworn in only.

" 'The act of March 2, 1901 (31 Stat., 902) provides as follows:

" " " * * * That hereafter * * * an enlisted man when discharged from the service except by way of punishment for an offense, shall receive four cents per mile from place of discharge to place of enlistment, enrollment, or muster into the service.'

"'In Winthrop's Digest of Opinions of Judge Advocates General of the Army it was said with reference to Second Article of War (1342 R. S.) at page 19:

"'"The taking of the oath prescribed by this article is not an essential to the validity of an enlistment. It is, however, an almost invariable part of a regular formal enlistment, and, in the absence of any provision in our law defining in what an enlistment shall consist, it is important that it should not be omitted, for the reason that the oath as taken and subscribed by the party constitutes the regular, and in some cases, the only, legal written evidence that the personal act of enlisting has been completed by him.'" "'At page 384 ib. it was said:

"'"Our law not defining, nor designating what proceeding or proceedings shall or may constitute an enlistment, it may be said in general that any act or acts which indicate an undertaking on the part of a person legally competent to do so, to render military service to the United States for the term required by the existing law, and an acceptance of such service on the part of the government may ordinarily be regarded as legal evidence of a contract of enlistment between the parties, and as equivalent to a formal written agreement where no such agreement has been had."

"'In Coe v. U. S., 44 Ct. Cls. decision at page 427, Mr. Justice Barney in speaking for the Court said:

"'"In order to become a soldier in the United States Army i. e. in order to become a fully enlisted man, the party must first enlist by signing the prescribed application, and he must then be accepted and sworn into the service by the proper officer, who is then said to have enlisted the soldier. The signing of the application provided by the Articles of War, supra, is the only act in the matter of enlistment which can be performed by the soldier without the cooperation and assistance of the recruiting officer.

"'"We believe that when a soldier presents himself for service in the Army, signs the prescribed application and submits to and successfully passes a medical examination he has reenlisted within the meaning of Section 1284 R. S. supra." (See also 16 Comp. Dec., 359.)

"'Claimant presented himself for enlistment at Denver, Col., November 21, 1910, and signed his declaration of intention to enlist, was examined, and in short performed all acts within his power to become an enlisted man of the United States Marine Corps. He submitted to military authority and was by that authority transferred to a place other than the original place of entry into the military service within the meaning of the Act of March 2, 1901, supra, to wit, Salt Lake City, Utah, where he took the oath of allegiance as prescribed by the Second Article of War (Sec. 1342 R. S.) and was accepted and enlisted into the United States Marine Corps.

"'I am of opinion and so decide that the taking of the oath at Salt Lake City, Utah, more than five hundred miles from the place of his enlistment can not defeat the true intent of the law, and that the claimant is entitled to be paid travel pay on his discharge to Denver, Col., the place of his enlistment.'"

"The decision by the Auditor that Private Garrison's enlistment in the Marine Corps became legally effective at Denver, Col., and that under and subject to the law governing the payment of travel allowance he was entitled on discharge to travel allowance to such place is approved. The records show that Private Garrison was honorably discharged the service with character good.

"TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
"OFFICE OF COMPTOLLER OF THE TREASURY,
"Washington, March 8, 1911.

"The Honorable
"The Secretary of the Navy.

"Sir:

"I have received your communication of the 4th instant:

"'* * * requesting decision of the question presented in the within papers as to the right of Peter Turner Hall, whose enlistment record is enclosed herewith, to receive pay for the period from December 29, 1910, the date first signature was affixed by him to the enclosed enlistment paper, at Denver, Colorado, to December 31, 1910, date of his second signature thereto, at Salt Lake City, Utah.

"'A letter from the officer in charge of the marine recruiting district of Utah, dated November 23, 1910, in consequence of which this question has arisen, is enclosed, together with copy of this Department's letter of December 31, 1910, holding that men "examined and accepted at Denver, Colorado, but sworn in at Salt Lake City, Utah," should be treated as having enlisted at Denver, Colo., within the meaning of the Act of March 2, 1901 (31 Stat., 902), authorizing payment of mileage on discharge.

"'There appears to be no doubt that Hall would be entitled on discharge to be furnished mileage to Denver, Colorado. To hold otherwise would be to defeat the obvious purpose of Congress that enlisted men of the Army and Marine Corps should on discharge be returned, at Government expense, to the place from which they were removed by the military authorities after making application for enlistment. The question is, whether this man should be treated as having enlisted at Denver, Colo., for all purposes. It would seem that when Hall regularly perfected his enlistment, without unnecessary delay, at Salt Lake City, Utah, it properly related back to the time when he presented himself for service in the Marine Corps, signed the prescribed application, and submitted to and passed a medical examination at Denver, Colo. (Coe vs. U. S., 44 C. Cls., 419).'

"It appears from the papers submitted that Peter Turner Hall presented himself for enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps at Denver, Colo., December 29, 1910, where he signed the prescribed application and successfully passed a medical examination; also that he took the oath of allegiance prescribed by the 2nd article of war (sec. 1342, R. S.) December 31, 1910, at Salt Lake City, Utah, to which place he proceeded under orders of the proper marine corps authorities.

"Upon the facts thus appearing I am of opinion that Private Hall's enlistment on his taking the oath of allegiance became complete and was legally effective December 29, 1910, and that he is entitled to pay from and including that date. (See Coe v. United States, 44 Ct. Cls., 419; Decision of this office of March 4, 1911, copy herewith.)

"All papers submitted are returned.

"Respectfully,

"L. P. MITCHELL,
"Assistant Comptroller."

Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NO. 1.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, April 20, 1911.

1. On July 1st next, there will be inaugurated at all posts of the Marine Corps now rationed by the contract system, a system of rationing which contemplates the purchase of the various components of the ration by items and the issue of such components directly to troops. The following instructions are published for the information and guidance of officers of the Marine Corps who are required to provide and issue ration to enlisted men, and such instructions will become effective upon the inauguration of the component ration system on July 1st, next.

2. The method to be followed involves placing the ration account of an organization or command on the basis of dollars and cents. The organization or command will be credited with the value of the number of rations due it, computed at the unit value of the ration, and the organization or command may draw against such credit in components of the ration regardless of the quantity of the articles drawn or the specific articles, up to the full amount of its credit.

3. An account of all articles of the ration received from contractors will be kept in a book set apart for this special purpose. On the last day of the month, all articles purchased during the month, from whatever source, will be taken up on the "Abstract of Purchases," Form N. M. C. 579, and the totals from this abstract will be carried to the "Return of Subsistence Stores," the abstract becoming the voucher to the return. The "Abstract of Purchases" will be supported by duplicates of the contractor's bills. Articles that may be received on invoice will be taken up on the return, on the invoices as vouchers.

4. An account of issues of authorized articles of subsistence stores will be kept in a book devoted exclusively to such purpose. The account of issues of articles of provisions that may be obtained from post-funds will not be confused in any way with the account of articles of the ration issued: and the account of issues of such articles as may be obtained from post funds will be kept entirely separate from the account of regular issues of ration articles chargeable to the ration and savings account. The Account of ration articles issued will be summed up on the last day of the month and the totals of each of the various components and substitutive articles issued will be carried to the form "Ration Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issued," Form N. M. C. 563. At all posts in the United States, and at posts outside of the United States where general messes are maintained, the ration will be issued to the entire command as a unit, only one ration and savings account will be kept, and the entire transaction of rationing the command will be conducted as for a single unit. At posts where separate company messes are maintained, a separate ration account will be kept with each organization, the account to be kept in the manner above set forth. Likewise, a separate "Ration Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issued" will be prepared for each of the several organizations to which rations are issued, at posts where company messes are maintained.

5. The aggregate value of all articles of the ration issued to a command as a unit, or to a company mess, as the case may be, will be determined by computing the quantity of the various articles of the ration issued at the current prices and such aggregate will be entered on the form "Statement of Ration Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issue," Form N. M. C. 563, in the space provided therefor.

6. The "Statement of Ration Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issued," Form N. M. C. 563, will constitute the voucher for dropping the articles issued from the return of subsistence stores. The vouchers supporting issues of articles of the ration will be entered directly on the return, on separate lines, provided there is space therefor. In case the number of such vouchers should exceed the number of lines available, as may be the case at posts where company messes are maintained, vouchers, "Ration Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issued," will be consolidated on Form N. M. C. 578, and the totals entered on the return on a single line.

7. At posts where general messes are maintained, a "Ration Check," Form N. M. C. 565, will be prepared for each day. Issues need not necessarily be made on Sunday, although the ration check for Sunday should show the total rations allowed for that day. At posts where general messes are maintained, the reverse of Form N. M. C. 563, will be completed and made to show the total rations due the command. At posts where general messes are not maintained, the reverse of Form N. M. C. 563 will not be used. Nor will "Ration Checks," Form N. M. C. 565, be used at such posts. The form "Ration Return," N. M. C. 582, is provided for use at posts where separate company messes are maintained: and such "Ration Returns" will afford the necessary data to support the entries showing rations due the companies or organizations on the ration and savings account, Form N. M. C. 587.

8. At posts where separate company messes are maintained, and where issues of rations are made for stated periods, the ration periods should not exceed four (4) per month, owing to the limitations of Form N. M. C. 587. As will be observed, there are spaces on this form for the different organizations and columns for as many as four ration periods. It will ordinarily be found good practice to require organizations maintaining separate messes to submit three ration returns per month.

9. In no case will an organization or general mess be allowed to draw against its ration and savings account articles of the ration in excess of the total credit of the organization as per the ration and savings account. When an organization is found to have drawn up to the limit of its credit on the ration and savings account, any additional articles required by the organization will be sold to it for cash and accounted for on the "Abstract of Subsistence Stores Sold." Form N. M. C. 580.

The Ration and Savings Account.

10. The "Ration and Savings Account" is the money statement of the ration account of the organization. For the purpose of making up the "Ration and Savings Account" at posts where general messes are maintained, the entire month will be considered as one ration period, and the entire command as one organization. The ration period will extend from the first to the last day of the month, and the number of rations due will be the rations due as shown on the "Statement of Ration Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issued," Form N. M. C. 563. The actual cost of the ration will be arrived at by figuring on the basis of one hundred (100) rations at the contract price of the stipulated components as set forth on the back of "Ration and Savings Account" form. Issues are not restricted to the components stipulated for use in figuring the cost of the ration. Any authorized articles of the ration provided for in the contracts may be issued as required, at the contract price. The cost of the ration as derived is merely to be used in arriving at the amount of the credit of the organization on account of rations. The column "Total Amount," on the ration and savings account form, represents the total credit of the command for the month on account of rations, and is obtained by multiplying the cost of one ration at the post, as determined in accordance with the foregoing instructions, by the total number of rations due. The value of stores issued as shown on "Statement of Ration Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issued," will be entered in the column "value of stores issued." The difference between the total amount of credit due the organization on account of rations and the value of stores issued represents the savings due the organization; and such amount will be paid to the organization on the ration and savings account voucher by the disbursing assistant quartermaster whose duty it is to pay the voucher. The ration and savings account voucher will be completed and forwarded, as soon as possible after the last day of the month, to the disbursing officer who is required to make payment thereon. The ration and savings account voucher will be supported by copies of the statement of "Ration Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issued," and will be in duplicate.

11. At posts where separate company messes are maintained, the value of rations due the separate organizations for the different ration periods will be stated in the columns provided therefor on the ration and savings account form; and the aggregate of such credits for the different periods will be stated in the column "Total Amount." In other respects the form "Ration and Savings Account" will be completed as set forth in the preceding paragraph, except that, as previously stated, the strength present for rations of the different organizations will be supported by the "Ration Return," N. M. C. 582, and not by the detailed statement of strength for rations required to be set forth on the reverse of Form N. M. C. 563, as applied to posts where general messes are maintained. The "Ration Returns," Form N. M. C. 582, will be retained and filed by subsistence officers. The accounts of the different organizations will be carried on the ration and savings account form on separate lines.

Prices.

12. (a) The prices of subsistence stores for the post will be the contract prices of the various articles as per the current contracts for the respective articles. These prices will be used in figuring the actual cost of the ration, and will be entered on the return of subsistence stores for the period. Articles of subsistence stores that may be carried forward from the previous month that were purchased under previous contracts at prices different from the prevailing prices as per contracts for the current month will be taken up at current contract prices. In the event that the price of any article varies during the month by reason of change of contract or other reason, an average price for such article will be obtained by dividing the total cost by the quantity of the article purchased.

(b) Owing to the sliding scale and maximum features of the contract for subsistence stores obtained at Camp Elliott, Panama, prices at that station are liable to fluctuation. Conditions at Camp Elliott are in this respect exceptional: and at this station the following special instructions will govern in the matter of prices. The actual prices charged by the contractor for the month will be applied in determining the prices of subsistence stores for such month. The prices of subsistence stores for each month will therefore be the prices charged by the contractor for the articles delivered as per his bills rendered on the last of the month. In the event of different prices being charged for the same article, it will be necessary to derive an average price by dividing the total cost of such article by the total quantity. In case none of an article should be procured in any month, the price of such article will be the price of the article that obtained on the last day of the preceding month. The prices of subsistence stores will be fixed monthly, in accordance with the foregoing; and such prices will be applied in figuring the actual cost of the ration, in making sales; and such prices will be entered on the return of subsistence stores for the period.

(c) The price at which subsistence stores that may be obtained on invoice from other stations, or other departments of the Government, will be sold or issued, is the invoice price of the last lot of the same variety of subsistence stores received by the officer making the sale or issue, prior to the first day of the month in which the sale, issue, or transfer is made.

13. Flour required for baking bread for the command will be issued and accounted for on the statement of "Strength and Abstract of Articles of the Ration Issued," in like manner as other components of the ration. Bakery funds and bakeries will be managed as heretofore.

14. The quantities of stores ordered from contractors is a matter to be determined by the post-quartermaster, subject to the instructions of the commanding officer; but in placing orders for stores the convenience of the contractors in the matter of quantities to be delivered should be considered, in so far as storage space available and the interests of the Government will admit.

15. Payment for supplies will be made monthly; and contractors should be required to render their bills monthly to the post quartermaster. The original of the contractors' bills will be appended to the vouchers in favor of the contractor. and the vouchers forwarded promptly to the disbursing assistant quartermaster charged with paying the account, duly certified, for payment.

16. All articles of the ration required for the supply of troops will be obtained by the post-quartermaster from the contractor and supplied to the organizations, except that, if an organization uses, during the month, more of any article of the ration than is authorized by regulations, such excess need not necessarily be obtained from the subsistence officer; or if any articles connot be provided by the contractor, a temporary supply may be purchased by the subsistence officer elsewhere.

17. Regarding the allowance of turkey on national holidays, attention is further invited to the following extract from General Orders, War Department, which will be observed in settlement on such occasions:—

> "When a holiday occurs in any ration period and the turkey or chicken available for supply costs more than the regular meat ration, the proper allowance will be made by adding to the amount due the organization for that period the product of the number of men present on the holiday multiplied by the excess cost of the chicken or turkey over the regular meat ration."

In computing the cost of the ration for a month in which a holiday occurs, the allowance of undrawn turkey is 19 ounces. (Referring to the quotation used in this paragraph, chicken is no longer authorized as a substitutive article of the ration, and turkey is authorized on Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day only.)

18. In figuring the cost of the ration when component or substitutive articles of the ration are provided for in the contract in different kinds of packages, the price varying with the package, the current price of the article in the least expensive package will be used in computing the cost of the ration.

19. Soap, candles, and ice that may be issued in accordance with established allowances will be dropped from the returns of the accountable officer, on certificates of the issuing officer, duly approved by the commanding officer.

Returns.

20. Returns for subsistence stores will be rendered monthly. The returns will be made up in accordance with the instructions printed on the blanks, and supported by subsidiary vouchers, all of which will be completed in accordance with the instructions printed on the forms. Returns will be forwarded to the Officer in Charge of the Quartermaster's Department within ten (10) days after the expiration of the month to which the returns pertain. The necessary blanks to be used in rendering returns will be furnished to the posts by the Quartermaster's Department.

21. When necessary for any reason to render returns for part of a month, the abstract of purchases rendered for the first part of the month will not be accompanied by the dealers' bills. When returns are rendered for fractional parts of a month, the dealers' bills will accompany the abstract forwarded with the last return; and the aggregates of articles taken up on the different abstracts should agree with the totals as per dealers' bills. The ration and savings account will not be rendered from permanent stations for fractional parts of a month under any conditions.

22. MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
No. 6.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, May 9, 1911.

1. Subject to the provisions of Articles 1445 (3), and 1446, Navy Regulations, 1909, commanding officers of marines serving at posts and stations beyond the limits of the states comprising the Union, and the territories of the United States contiguous thereto, are authorized, in cases of original promotions to the grades of first sergeant (temporary warrant), sergeant, and corporal, within their commands, to issue temporary warrants, within proportions to be prescribed by the Commandant of the Corps, under which such non-commissioned officers will assume the rank, insignia, and duties, and will be entitled to the pay, of their respective grades from date of appointment. When a force is organized into a regiment, the power herein conferred shall rest in the regimental commander, except that when regiments are formed into a regularly organized brigade, this power shall rest in the brigade commander.

2. Copies of temporary warrants, when so issued, shall be transmitted to these Headquarters with the report of examination in each case. Regular warrants will then be forwarded by the Commandant of the Corps, in approved cases, in confirmation of such original appointments. Temporary warrants may be revoked by the appointing officer at any time prior to the receipt of the permanent warrant, in which case the permanent warrant, if received, shall be returned to the Commandant of the Corps.

3. Where, for any reason, a temporary appointment is not approved at these Headquarters, it shall be revoked, upon receipt of notice of such disapproval from the Commandant of the Corps, by the commanding officer under whom the man is then serving; and the increase of pay incident to the temporary appointment shall cease from the date of such revocation.

4. Vacancies occuring shall not be filled unless there are available men who are qualified in every respect to perform the duties pertaining to the grade which may be vacant. Should such men not be available, the commanding officer shall notify the Commandant to that effect.

5. Commanding officers of marines, both within and without the United States, and recruiting officers are authorized, upon the reenlistment within ten days following the day of discharge of any marine who was discharged as a non-commissioned officer with character "Excellent," to reappoint him at once to the grade held by him at date of said discharge, subject to the approval of these Headquarters. Warrants in such cases shall be appropriately endorsed by the appointing authority and transmitted to the Commandant of the Corps for his approval. Non-commissioned officers so appointed will assume the rank, insignia, and duties, and will be entitled to the pay of their respective grades, from the date of such temporary reappointment.

6. Non-commissioned officers who have held permanent warrants, and who may have been reduced from such status for duty on recruiting service, shall, upon their subsequent return to the general service (if such return is not on account of misconduct), be reappointed by the recruiting officer to the grades in which they originally held permanent warrants. In such cases, the warrants shall be appropriately indorsed and transmitted by the appointing authority, to these Headquarters, where the same procedure will follow as is above outlined in cases of re-enlisted non-commissioned officers.

7. Original promotions not hereinbefore provided for will be evidenced by regular warrants issued from these Headquarters; and such non-commissioned officers will assume the rank, insignia, and duties, and will be entitled, from the date of appointment, to the pay, of their respective grades as evidenced by the date of the issue of the warrant.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, May 11, 1911.

The provisions of General Order No. 52, Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, April 14, 1910, are so far amended that indebtednesses to post-exchanges, incurred after July 1, 1911, at all shore stations of the corps, in amounts not in excess of properly authorized credits, will, in cases of deserters, be checked against their accounts on pay-rolls, and on transfer-accounts to the deserters' roll. Post-exchange vouchers, for each month next after that stated, will include, immediately following accounts thereon as now authorized, under the title "Deserters' Accounts," the amount so checked in each case of a deserter; and to such vouchers there will be attached the original evidence (post-exchange tickets) as signed by the enlisted man concerned, corroborating the amount so claimed. If such tickets cannot be so filed, a certificate showing reasons therefor, by an officer other than the post-exchange officer, and further stating that the records show that such indebtedness actually exists in each case, in the amounts stated, will be attached to the post-exchange vouchers.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major General Commandant.

The modified system as approved contemplates the use of the following new forms. The practice to be observed in the handling of the issue of clothing under the modified system is explained in connection with the different forms mentioned:

REQUISITION-SLIP.

(a) An enlisted man who requires clothing will enter on the requisition-slip the articles required, in time, if possible, to have it completed and turned in to the issuing officer at least two days prior to issue-day, for examination and such revision as may be necessary. The requisition-slip displaces the individual clothing requisition and receipt-book heretofore used; and the use of this book is no longer authorized.

ISSUE-SLIP.

(b) The issue-slip will be made out in triplicate, by the use of an indelible pencil and carbon paper, at the time the issue of clothing is made. A separate issue-slip will be made up for each issue of clothing to an individual. The original issue-slip will be used as the forwarding voucher. The duplicate issue-slip becomes the issuing officer's retained voucher, while the triplicate issue-slip is given to the enlisted man, at the time the issue is made, to be retained by him. First-sergeants or company-commanders may retain for safe keeping the triplicate issue-slips pertaining to the enlisted men of their companies. The originals and duplicates of issue-slips covering issues to each individual will have the clothing-account number of the individual entered thereon. The originals and duplicates of issue-slips pertaining to each individual will also be numbered in series, from 1 up; for example, in case only one issue should be made to a man, the slip should be numbered 1; if two issues should be made, the second slip should be numbered 2, etc. These issue-slip numbers are to be of a different series from account-numbers and have no connection with account-numbers. A new series of numbers for issue-slips will be started with the beginning of each quarter or accounting period. Both originals and duplicates of issue-slips will be signed by the enlisted man who receives the clothing; and all three copies will be signed by the witnessing officer.

CONSOLIDATED STATEMENT OF ISSUE-SLIPS.

(c) On this form a consolidation of issues to individuals will be made from the issue-slips. The account-number of each individual to whom issues have been made will be entered in the colum provided therefor; and the value of the issue per each slip to such account will be entered in the space provided therefor. A record of all issues to individuals, as supported by the issue-slips, will be stated in the space provided therefor. The consolidated statement, supported by the original copies of the issue-slips, becomes the voucher to support the charges on the clothing-account roll on account of clothing issued. The consolidated statement of issues will be prepared whenever an officer closes his returns for any reason. The original, with the original copies of issue-slips, will be forwarded to the officer in charge of the quartermaster's department with the clothing-account roll, provided the returns have been closed on the last of the quarter and the clothing-account roll is being forwarded. In case an officer shall be closing his returns prior to the end of the quarter, on account of having been relieved, the original of the consolidated statement of issue-slips and the original copies of issue-slips will be forwarded to the officer in charge of the quartermaster's department forthwith, to be retained by the quartermaster's department until the clothing-account roll from the post comes in. The duplicate of the consolidated statement of issue-slips, with the retained requisition and issue-slips, will, in such a case, be prepared and left at the post as the basis for charging amounts of issues of clothing on the clothing-acconnt roll for the period involved.

CHECK-SHEET.

(d) At the conclusion of the day's issue, the articles issued will be checked from the issue-slips to the check-sheet. One page of the check-sheet will be devoted to each day that clothing is issued. The totals of the articles issued will be computed and entered on the check-sheet in the space provided therefor. The aggregates of values of the various articles issued for the day will also be computed and entered on the check-sheet in the proper column. Totals of articles of previous issues will be brought forward; and the aggregate of the articles issued to date, in the accounting period, will be stated in the column provided. The check-sheets will be kept posted up so that it can be determined immediately at any time what quantities of each of the various articles of clothing the issuing officer may have issued in the current accounting period. Check-sheets will be kept in prong-files, or loose leaf binders, which will be provided for the purpose.

ABSTRACT OF ISSUES.

(e) Whenever it becomes necessary for an officer to close his returns, either because of being relieved or because of end of quarter, the totals of articles of clothing issued to date as per check-sheet will be transferred to the form "Abstract of Clothing Issued." The money value of the various articles issued, as stated on the abstract, will be computed at the established prices; and the aggregate value of issues will be stated on the abstract. This abstract will constitute the officer's voucher for dropping the clothing issued, from his returns; and the original will be forwarded to the officer in charge of the quartermaster's department, with the return; the duplicate will be filed with the retained return. The aggregate value of clothing issued, as per the abstract of issues, less the value of any articles such as service-stripes, etc. that may have been issued gratuitously, should agree with the aggregate value of all issues as shown by the consolidated statement of issue-slips for the period involved, thus producing a check on the account.

2. The modified system of accounting for clothing does not involve any changes in the method of keeping the clothing-account roll, except that accounts on the clothing-account roll shall hereafter be numbered in one series, from 1 up, and not by pages, as heretofore. The account of every enlisted man that appears on the clothing-account roll shall be given a separate number. The first name on the roll will be No. 1, the second 2, etc. The accounts will be numbered from 1 up, irrespective of the sheets of the roll. These numbers will not be changed during the quarter; but a new series will be started at the first of each quarter. The number of a man's account, as shown on the clothing-account roll, will appear on each of his issue-slips.

3. Any details connected with the issue and accounting for clothing that may not be covered by these instructions will be carried out in accordance with printed instructions appearing on the blank forms provided for use in connection with the issue and accounting for clothing, and such detailed instructions as may be communicated by letter from the officer in charge of the quartermaster's department from time to time.

4. The modified system of accounting for clothing will be instituted at all posts of the Marine Corps and by marine detachments of vessels of the Navy to which the necessary blanks can be furnished by such time, on July 1st, next. The system will be inaugurated at posts and by marine detachments of vessels of the Navy that cannot be supplied with the necessary blanks by July 1st, next, on the first of the quarter beginning October 1, 1911.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
No. 23.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, July 26, 1911.

1. In view of the percentage of desertions in the Marine Corps, the Major-General Commandant is of the opinion that there are underlying causes, which, if known and classified, the conditions leading thereto might be corrected or ameliorated.

2. In order, however, that the tabulation and classification made at these headquarters may be of any real value in reflecting general conditions, the cooperation of all officers is required. At present, in ninety per cent. of all cases, the cause of desertion is entered in the service-record books as "Unknown."

3. Whenever officers of the Marine Corps have occasion to close the staff-returns of a man by reason of desertion, they are directed to enter in the service-record book their opinion as to the probable cause of desertion; and the phrases "Not known" or "Unknown" should not be used until every reasonable effort to discover the probable cause of desertion has been made. In this connection the opinion of the better class of non-commissioned officers should be called for; and where company organization is in effect the entry should be made by the company commander.

4. Whenever a deserter surrenders or is apprehended, careful inquiry will be made to ascertain the true cause leading up to his desertion and report made to these headquarters.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
No. 29.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, August 29, 1911.

1. In connection with Marine Corps Order No. 26, issued from these Headquarters August 1, 1911, particular attention is called to the various sizes of all coats and trousers issued to the Corps. The sizes "long," "medium," and "short" coats and trousers of different sizes are now made. The conformation of men varies. Some men with certain chest measurement, for example, require long sleeves and waists, and others short sleeves and waists. Diversity also exists as to hips and seat measurement, etc. To provide for this diversity in the conformation of men, "long," "medium," and "short" coats and trousers are manufactured. Complaint has been made that full-dress and undress coats part in front at the bottom. Experience shows in most cases that this parting in due to one of two causes—that the men have their coats taken in on the hips or seat, or that the coats issued are too small over the hips or seat. For illustration, a man may seem to require a No. 2 "long" undress coat; it is possible that a No. 3 "short" will fit better. Special care will be observed in the issue of garments.

2. In all cases men will be required to try on garments before taking them. Trying on garments is important. It is the practical, surest way to obtain a fit. Owing to the increased number of sizes, the alteration of garments should not be necessary if careful attention is paid to trying on at time of issue. Garments will only be altered upon authority of the commanding marine officer.

3. Reports having been made regarding the shrinkage of white linen garments after laundering, it is suggested that the following instructions be adhered to by laundresses, which, it is believed, will reduce or obviate the trouble complained of: Iron the garment before it is thoroughly dried out, and if dried before ironing, dampen well; then stretch well out, removing all wrinkles from the garment and bring the fiber of the material to its proper length, so that the face will be smooth. The garment will then be as long and as wide as before laundering. All patterns on which linen garments are cut are larger all over than any others, to provide for unavoidable shrinkage when first washed.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
No. 30.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON, September 11, 1911.

1. Hereafter recruiting officers at recruiting stations will not make enlistments or re-enlistments, except re-enlistments of members of their recruiting parties or such re-enlistments as may hereafter be authorized, but will examine applicants physically, mentally, and morally to determine their fitness for the service, and will forward such applicants as they may deem qualified to such posts as may be ordered for final examination and enlistment if found qualified.

2. Recruiting officers at recruiting stations may re-enlist members of their recruiting parties to be continued on duty with those parties without sending the men to posts for examination, provided that the re-enlistments are made within ten days after discharge, and the men are found qualified for service on examination by the recruiting officers. In such cases, the recruiting officers will complete the enlistment papers, finger-print cards, form for physical examination of recruits, and the service-record book, and forward enlistment papers direct to the Major-General Commandant.

3. Immediately after the acceptance of an applicant by the recruiting officer, the latter will forward the man's enlistment paper to the commanding officer of the designated post, the applicant to follow as soon thereafter as practicable. He will see that the application of the recruit and the certificate of the medidal examiner on the enlistment paper are properly filled out and signed. To prevent fraudulent enlistments at posts, finger-print cards must be forwarded to the Major-General Commandant without any delay whatever, so that they may be examined before there is any possibility of the man's being enlisted.

4. The recruiting officers will be held to a strict responsibility for the acceptance and forwarding of men who may afterward be found unfitted or undesirable for the service; and officers who enlist such men will be held to a like responsibility. Recruiting officers will carry accepted applicants on their muster-rolls, under the heading of "Accepted Applicants on Probation," and will show, in the column of remarks, the place and the date of the application, the date of the transfer, and the place to which transferred.

5. Upon the arrival of an accepted applicant for enlistment at a post, he will be immediately examined, and if found not qualified, immediately rejected. Applicants found qualified will be enlisted within ten days of their arrival at the post. They will not, however, be enlisted immediately, but due time will be allowed for the examination of the finger-print records and, in case of possibility of fraudulent enlistment, for the forwarding of a report by these Headquarters as to the result of such examination. Should no such report arrive within three days for posts on the east coast, or within six days for posts on the west coast, the applicant may be enlisted.

6. A recruiting officer of a post to which accepted applicants for enlistment are sent by recruiting officers will satisfy himself as to the desirability of the applicant, and, if otherwise desirable, will have him thoroughly examined by the medical officer of the station, who should verify the medical certificate on the enlistment paper and make the necessary entries in the service-record book. In the event of errors in the medical examiner's certificate on the enlistment paper, the naval medical officer should correct it, as provided for in instructions in the service-record book.

7. Should the applicant be accepted by a recruiting officer at the post, the latter will complete the enlistment by administering the oath, and otherwise complete the enlistment paper and service-record book. The date and the place of application as shown on the enlistment paper will be entered in the service-record book as the date and the place of enlistment; and the man will be so carried on the muster- and pay-rolls. Enlistment papers, on completion, will be forwarded at once direct to the Major-General Commandant. In the event of the rejection of any applicant for cause, the commanding officer will without delay furnish the applicant transportation and subsistence to his place of application. Where the cause of rejection is fraud committed at the time application was made, or otherwise committed, return transportation should not be furnished, except by authority of the Major-General Commandant. In all cases of rejected applicants, the papers will be forwarded to these Headquarters, the date and the cause of rejection being indicated in the papers.

8. Accepted applicants for enlistment who are found unfit for the service on final examination at posts, will be regarded as remaining under military observation until they have been returned to the recruiting station at which they were accepted, or until they shall have arrived at those stations after having been forwarded thereto.

9. If, in the opinion of the commanding and medical officers, the disqualification in the case of a rejected applicant is of such character as should have been discovered by the recruiting officer who accepted and forwarded the applicant to the post, the commanding officer will report by letter to the Major-General Commandant all the facts in the case.

10. Accepted applicants for enlistment will be taken up, on their arrival at a post, for rations and quarters, but not for pay. If not enlisted or rejected before the end of the month, applicants will be taken up on the muster-rolls, under the subheading "Accepted Applicants on Probation"; all rejected applicants under the subheading "Rejected Applicants," the cause and date of rejection being indicated; if enlisted, they will be taken up in the manner hereinbefore indicated; if they absent themselves without leave en route to the post, or prior to enlistment, they will be indicated on the muster-rolls as "Elopers."

11. All Marine Corps orders or parts of orders conflicting with the above are revoked.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
No. 34.

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, September 26, 1911.

1. In order that men may be qualified as soon as possible after the completion of the courses in rifle firing, it is directed that on all rifle ranges a certain time be allowed each day during the season, either before or after firing, for the test in estimating distance, and that men who have qualified in any of the courses in rifle firing be given the estimating distance test the following day.

2. It is manifestly unjust that a man, having qualified in any course, should be kept from drawing the increased pay due therefor, owing to the fact that he has not been given an opportunity to qualify in estimating distance.

3. Officers in charge of the various ranges will be held accountable for the strict observance of these instructions.

BY ORDER OF THE MAJOR-GENERAL COMMANDANT:

J. E. MAHONEY,
Colonel, U. S. Marine Corps.

Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS, NO. 43.

HEADQUARTERS U. S. MARINE CORPS, WASHINGTON, October 23, 1911.

1. Hereafter, in addition to the markings for professional qualifications and conduct now required to be entered in the service-record books (or descriptive books) of enlisted men, semiannual markings shall be entered on June 30th and December 31st. The record of offenses and punishments shall be made in the service-record book when the punishment is awarded and shall be signed (on transfer, desertion, etc., and semiannually) when the professional and conduct record is signed. In accordance with the provisions of the Navy Regulations, markings given in conduct shall correspond to the record of the man as shown by the offenses committed and by the punishments adjudged during each period.

2. For the first entry under Professional and Conduct Record at each station or vessel, the column "Station or Vessel" shall be filled out with the name of the station or vessel, and subsequent markings while at the same station or vessel will require no further entry in this column. Under the column "Transferred, Discharged, Deserted, etc.," the abbreviation "Semi-an." shall be entered for the semiannual markings, followed by the date in its regular column.

3. Markings on transfer shall be taken into consideration in making the next semiannual markings after transfer. The semiannual markings and the last marking, "For Discharge," shall be made in red ink, and these markings only shall be considered in obtaining final markings.

4. Except when the first semiannual markings cover a recruit service of less than three months, when these marks shall not be considered, the markings for discharge shall be an arithmetical average of all semiannual markings, and the character recommended shall be based upon this final marking: the decimal system shall be used in entering marks, the averages being to the nearest tenth. Whenever a character upon discharge is recommended that does not correspond to the final marking (and such a recommendation should be made when it appears that markings have been given the man that do not seem in accordance with the offenses recorded), or when it is desired to recommend a man for a good-conduct medal who has been convicted by a naval summary court-martial, the reasons therefor shall be given over the commanding officer's signature.

5. In closing the service-record books and descriptive books of men now in the service, a mathematical average of all markings given prior to July 1, 1911, shall be obtained, taking into consideration the period of service at each place where markings were given: this average, combined with the semiannual markings given (beginning December 31, 1911) and the last marking, "For Discharge," proper value being given to each according to length of time covered, will give the final markings.

6. At posts having a company organization the markings shall be entered personally and signed by the man's company commander, who shall also make recommendations as to good-conduct medals and bars. Commanding officers of such posts shall satisfy themselves that company records are properly kept and that company commanders comply with the provisions of this order. In cases where the commanding officer of a post does not agree with the markings for transfer or discharge, or the recommendations in regard to good-conduct medal or bar, his recommendations with reasons therefor, shall be given over his signature.

7. As a separate medical record is now issued for every enlisted man, it is directed that, hereafter, when a man is transferred to another station or vessel, his service-record book be not sent to the medical officer for the entries required by Article 998 (2), Navy Regulations, 1909, but that it be forwarded directly to the station or the vessel to which he is transferred. In the case of a transfer to a hospital or a hospital ship, the service-record book shall be retained at the station, or on board the vessel, to which the man is attached. No entry by the medical officer is required in the service-record book when a man's accounts are closed for discharge, retirement, death, or desertion.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS, NO. 44.

HEADQUARTERS U. S. MARINE CORPS.

WASHINGTON, October 25, 1911.

DISCHARGE CERTIFICATES.

1. Hereafter the discharge certificates of marines to be discharged upon expiration of enlistment and upon report of medical survey (disease or injury in the line of duty), will be prepared on parchment. Discharges in accordance with the sentence of a general court-martial, summary court-martial, or other cases, where character "bad" is given, will be prepared on yellow paper (N. M. C. 385). Discharges such as those issued upon reports of medical survey (disease or injury not in the line of duty), by purchase, upon settlement of accounts, because of undesirability, inaptitude, etc., where character other than bad is given, will be prepared on white paper (N. M. C. 385-a).

2. Except in the case of a man to be discharged in the Philippine Islands, Guam, or other place where specific authority to prepare discharge certificates and to award good-conduct insignia has been or may be given by the Major-General Commandant, all parchment discharges will be prepared at Marine Corps or Brigade Headquarters, and the certificate of good-conduct award thereon, if any, signed by the Major-General Commandant or brigade commander, the certificate being forwarded for completion and delivery, as at present, to the place where the man is serving.

3. In cases of white or yellow discharge certificates, the certificate will be prepared (issued), as well as delivered, at the place where the man is serving, the discharge and the delivery certificate thereon being signed by the senior marine officer of the post, station, or detachment. Where marine detachments on shore are in charge of non-commissioned officers, or in cases of marine detachments serving on board receiving or prison-ships, the marine will be transferred without specific orders from these Headquarters to the nearest Marine Corps post commanded by a commissioned officer, for discharge, two weeks prior to the expiration of enlistment; in all other cases, upon recommendation for discharge.

PAY AND CLOTHING ACCOUNTS.

4. Immediately a man is recommended for discharge, a statement of his account for settlement on discharge (N. M. C. 90) will, except where the man is carried by a naval paymaster, be submitted, by the officer keeping the pay-rolls, to the proper paymaster of the Corps, in which statement there will be credited or debited the amount then due or overdrawn on account of clothing. A settlement of the clothing account on N. M. C. 146, certified by the post-quartermaster, or other officer keeping the clothing account roll, supporting this sum, must accompany N. M. C. 90. Where accounts of marines on shore duty are carried by naval paymasters, N. M. C. 146, prepared as above indicated, but extended to include the date of discharge, will be furnished such paymasters.

5. Post-quartermasters or other officers having charge of the clothing account roll, will invariably close a man's clothing account to the dates indicated in the preceding paragraph, and furnish, at the same time, and in the same manner that now obtains, to the Officer in Charge of the Quartermaster's Department, proper papers showing the details of such settlement of clothing accounts. The Officer in Charge of the Quartermaster's Department will furnish to the Officer in Charge of the Paymaster's Department, on prescribed forms, as soon as practicable after the end of each month, but in no case longer than twenty (20) days thereafter, the result of his audit of certifications of post-quartermasters or officers keeping clothing account rolls, of balances on account of undrawn or overdrawn clothing.

6. The Major-General Commandant or brigade commander will send to the pay-officer having the man's accounts a copy of the order sent to the commanding officer to prepare discharge certificates. Upon receipt of the copy of the order for discharge, the pay-officer will make final settlement, including therein, in addition to the credit or debit for undrawn or overdrawn clothing theretofore certified by the post-quartermaster or officer keeping the clothing account rolls, the additional amount according to the prescribed scale of allowances for clothing due to the date of discharge, such date to be determined by the paymaster according to the time necessary to allow for the receipt of the final statement and check (if any) at the place of discharge. The officer delivering the discharge will, in all cases, enter therein the amount paid. The officer in charge of the Paymaster's Department will cause reports to be furnished to the Officer in Charge of the Quartermaster's Department covering the additional amounts credited for undrawn clothing to date of discharge, as herein described.

7. Pay and clothing accounts of men to be discharged upon expiration of enlistment, made out to include the day of discharge, will be forwarded to the proper paymaster at such time prior to the expiration of such enlistment as will enable the paymaster to make out and return final statements. The paymaster will make out the final statement, and will forward such statement with check, without further notification, to the man's commanding officer in time to reach him prior to the expiration of his enlistment.

SERVICE-RECORD BOOKS.

8. Service-record books of men to be discharged upon expiration of enlistment will be forwarded to Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps. All posts on the Atlantic coast, and recruiting stations east of the Mississippi River, will forward such books fifteen (15) days prior to the expiration of enlistment. All posts on the Pacific coast, and recruiting stations west of the Mississippi River, will forward such books twenty-five (25) days prior to the expiration of the enlistment.

9. The service-record books of all men discharged for other causes will be retained at the post until the discharge certificate has been delivered, when they will be completed in accordance with instructions contained in the service-record books and orders, and forwarded to Headquarters.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS Series 1912.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NUMBER 1.
(Series 1912).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, January 11, 1912.

I. It is directed that, in making official reference, in correspondence or elsewhere, to the various printed orders and circulars issued by this office, the following phraseology be employed: As to general orders of the period from December 21, 1908, to March 25, 1911, "Marine Corps General Order No.....": as to special orders of the period from November 16, 1908, to March 23, 1911, "Marine Corps Special Order No.....": as to circulars of the period from June 7, 1910, to March 27, 1911, "Marine Corps Circular No. .....": as to Marine Corps Orders of the period from April 20, 1911, to December 31, 1911, "Marine Corps Order No....., series 1911." Hereafter Marine Corps Orders will be designated by their numbers, followed by the years representing the series to which they belong, as in the designation last above quoted.

II. When an officer who has been detached from one station and ordered to another is granted leave of absence or authority to delay reporting at his new station, he will, on reporting for duty, inform his commanding officer of the inclusive dates of leave or of delay of which he may have availed himself, Articles 218 and 1530, U. S. Navy Regulations, 1909, being considered in connection therewith. This information will be embodied in the remarks, immediately after the entry of the fact of the officer's joining, on the first muster-roll on which his name appears at his new station.

III. The second paragraph of Marine Corps General Order No. 22 is revoked. Bills of fare will only be submitted to these Headquarters when specially directed.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NUMBER 2.
(Series 1912).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, January 12, 1912.

1. In order to earn bars for requalifications as sharpshooters, or expert riflemen, officers will be required to fire all the regular courses as though unqualified. An officer will only be entitled to a bar for the highest qualification previously attained by him.

2. Attention is invited to the fact that all officers of the line of and below the grade of captain are required to fire all the regular courses each year, and also the navy marksman's course at least once a year. (Par. 28-c, G. O. 112, Navy Department, 1911.)

3. Distinguished marksmen are not eligible for teams in post, interpost, or division competitions. They may fire in individual competitions, but are not entitled to any prize for such firing. In the division competitions they will be graded in order of merit, but cannot win a medal or a place on the division team.

4. This office intends to open the ranges at Winthrop and Saunders Range about April 15th, and at Wakefield about May 1st. Steps will be taken at once by commanding officers to have all men thoroughly instructed in the preliminary drills, and in Part I of the Marine Corps score-book; and it is directed that, wherever practicable, an officer be detailed to supervise this instruction. It has been found that men from posts where attention is given to the preliminary drills qualify in large numbers, while the percentage of men qualifying from posts where this important work is neglected is small. All of the preliminary drills, including instruction in Part I of the score-book and gallery practice, simulating range firing in all its details to the greatest possible extent, can be carried on during the winter months with profitable results.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NUMBER 3.
(Series 1912).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, March 16, 1912.

1. The following instructions concerning deserters and stragglers will be observed in the future. Marine Corps General Order No. 3, Marine Corps General Order No. 12, and Marine Corps Order No. 23, Series of 1911, are hereby revoked.

2. Every effort will be exerted to apprehend, bring to trial, and punish deserters from the Marine Corps. When an enlisted man is declared a deserter, the commanding officer of the post at which he has been serving shall immediately offer a reward of fifty dollars for his apprehension and delivery within two years of date of desertion at any marine barracks or at any recruiting office at which a marine officer is stationed (except the recruiting offices at New York, N. Y., and Philadelphia, Pa.) A list of such offices as at present existing is appended: and commanding officers will be notified from time to time as changes therein occur.

3. A copy of the reward will be sent to the Officer in Charge of the Quartermaster's Department; to the deserter's next of kin; to the mayor of the town where he resided at date of enlistment; to the headquarters station of the recruiting district in which he was accepted (provided he deserts within one year from date of enlistment); to the mayors of any other towns to which it is thought he may have proceeded, being guided by facts obtained from his military history, declarations to comrades, or any other source of information; and to such detective agencies as may from time to time be designated by Headquarters.

4. Absence without leave, with a manifest intention not to return, is regarded as desertion; therefore, when the intention to desert is apparent, a reward will be offered immediately, without awaiting the expiration of ten days.

5. In order to have at hand and immediately available for use before general courts-martial the necessary evidence for the trial of enlisted men of the Marine Corps who have been declared deserters, and to aid courts-martial in determining whether such men are guilty of desertion or absence without leave, it is directed that upon desertion entries be made in service-record books of such of the following circumstances attending the desertion as may be known:

Disposal of effects, especially uniforms.
Secret preparations for desertion.
Procuring plain clothes.
Declarations to comrades.
A known desire to quit the service.
Taking passage for a distant point.
Escaping from arrest.
The commission of an offense and fear of punishment.

A report as to whether a deserter left any effects of value is the one most easily ascertainable.

6. The entries "Not known" and "Unknown" shall not be inserted in the service-record book until every reasonable effort has been made to discover the probable cause of desertion. In this connection the opinion of the better class of noncommissioned officers should be called for. Where company organization is in effect, the entry should be made by the company commander. Entry should also be made in the service-record book of the hour and date, place or port of desertion, and that a reward has been offered. A copy of the reward offered shall be forwarded with the book to Headquarters.

7. Whenever a deserter surrenders or is apprehended, careful inquiry shall be made to ascertain the true cause leading up to his desertion and report made to these Headquarters, the report to include statements in regard to the following points:

The manner of his return, whether forced or voluntary, and if voluntary, whether through fear of arrest.
The physical condition of the person so returned, as stated by the medical officer.
Statements made to prove identity.
Statements on surrender as to whether he is a deserter or a straggler.
Whether in plain clothes or in uniform upon return.
Condition of clothing, whether adequate or not for the season and part of the country from which returned, and whether ragged or not.

8. The officer receiving a deserter shall satisfy himself that the man is a deserter and that he is the person he is represented to be, and, if any doubt exists with respect to his identity, shall telegraph his personal description and statement of service claimed to Headquarters with a request for verification. When the identity of a deserter is established, the commanding officer of the post or recruiting officer shall prepare the necessary vouchers for the payment of the reward and forward them to the nearest disbursing officer of the Quartermaster's Department for payment. Wherever practicable, a copy of the offer of reward, including the description of the man, will accompany the voucher. The disbursing officer of the Quartermaster's Department receiving such voucher shall, if the same be in due form, make the necessary payment. Deserters shall be taken up for pay on the rolls of the post or recruiting district where received, pursuant to the provisions of Article 1366, paragraph 4, Navy Regulations, 1909. Checkages of the amount of the reward offered shall be noted on said pay-rolls, a certificate to this effect being made on the face of the vouchers covering the reward before their transmittal to the disbursing officer of the Quartermaster's Department. Checkages shall also be noted on the pay-rolls of all amounts expended by the Government incident to the apprehension and return to barracks of the deserter, including medical examination, transportation, subsistence, telegrams, etc., and the officer noting these checkages on the pay-rolls shall notify the Officer in Charge of the Quartermaster's Department to the end that the proper appropriations may be reimbursed.

9. The officer receiving a deserter shall cause him to be examined by a medical officer (or at a recruiting office, by the medical examiner): if physically unfit, he will telegraph to Headquarters, when a discharge as "unfit" will be prepared and mailed for delivery. By physical unfitness in a deserter is meant that degree of unfitness resulting from disease or disability which would render him, in case of his return to the Marine Corps authorities, a menace to the health of those with whom he would come in contact, or which would put the Government to a greater expense in his care and treatment than would be warranted by the benefit accruing to the service by reason of his punishment. The test of unfitness in the case of a deserter is entirely different from the standard set in the case of an applicant for enlistment. While such disabilities as loss of fingers, flat feet, under weight, impaired vision or hearing, loss of teeth, varicose veins, etc., would cause the rejection of an applicant for enlistment, their existence in a deserter will not render him unfit and should not constitute a reason why he should escape punishment. To constitute unfitness in a deserter there must exist disabilities or diseases of a more serious and vital nature, such as insanity, tuberculosis, appendicitis, diseases af a contagious nature, etc. Again, a distinction should be made between deserters for whom a reward has been paid for delivery and those who voluntarily surrendered: in the former case, i. e. where a reward has been paid for delivery, the deserter will not be pronounced "unfit" except as above outlined, while, in the latter case, where the deserter voluntarily surrenders, he will be pronounced "unfit" if the disability be such as would unquestionably preclude enlistment. In either case, the medical examiner should assure himself that the man is not feigning disability.

10. If surrendered at a recruiting office and the medical examiner pronounces the deserter physically fit, the recruiting officer shall, if he has a proper guard available, immediately transfer the deserter to the nearest marine barracks without further orders. If no guard be available at the recruiting office, the recruiting officer shall telegraph to the commanding officer of the nearest barracks requesting that a guard be furnished for this purpose, and the commanding officer of the marine barracks receiving such a telegram is hereby authorized, without reference to these Headquarters, to send the guard as requested.

11. No articles of outer uniform clothing other than such as may be necessary to enable them to appear decently clad, shall be issued to enlisted men who surrender, or who are delivered as stragglers or deserters and who are to be recommended for trial by general court-martial. Such men shall be retained in confinement and in cases of conviction shall be transferred to prison in the clothing worn by them when received into the custody of the Marine Corps authorities.

12. When a straggler from another post is apprehended or surrenders within ten days from the time of his original absence, the commanding officer of the barracks from which he is absent shall be notified immediately by telegraph.

13. Upon the receipt of such a telegram the commanding officer shall retain the staff-returns until orders as to their disposition are received from Headquarters.

14. Hereafter when commanding officers of posts of the Marine Corps, commanding officers of marine detachments, or noncommissioned officers in charge of marine detachments effect the transfer of detachments exceeding five men, the post to which they are transferred will be notified, by letter or telegram, a reasonable time in advance of their arrival, giving the number of men in the detachment, the date, hour, and place of probable arrival.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, April 10, 1912.

1. Referring to paragraph 3 of Marine Corps Order No. 3 (Series 1912), March 16, 1912, wherein it is directed that, upon the desertion of an enlisted man, a copy of the reward offered be mailed to the headquarters station of the recruiting district in which he was accepted (provided he deserts within one year from date of enlistment), there is appended a list showing the territory of the United States comprised within the several recruiting districts. This information is furnished in order that commanding officers may know to which headquarters station to send copies of the reward offered when a man accepted at a station other than the headquarters station deserts. When men enlisted in localities other than those set forth in the list desert, no copy of reward need be sent, the districts in the localities in question having been discontinued.

2. It is realized that the information furnished in the appended list is more or less indefinite. However, it is the intention of Headquarters to furnish commanding officers a monthly statement of recruiting which will show the different stations in the several recruiting districts; it will then be possible, by reference to this statement, to ascertain with accuracy the district in which a future deserter was accepted.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
No. 6.
(Series 1912).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, May 6, 1912.

1. It is desired that, as far as practicable, the sea and foreign service of enlisted men of the Marine Corps be equalized and that men be not permitted to perform a large proportion of foreign service, with the attendant increased pay and time for retirement, to the exclusion of others. It is therefore directed that commanding marine officers, when detailing men for foreign service, shall not, without specific authority from these Headquarters, select any man who has not thirty-four months to serve in his current enlistment, nor, in the case of re-enlisted men, any one who, in his preceding enlistment, completed two years' foreign service. Commanding officers will obtain from the man concerned the information as to foreign service performed, verifying, if possible, this information from his discharge certificate. Hereafter recruiting officers will enter in the service-record book the amount of foreign service performed by men in their preceding enlistment. In the new service-record book a space will be provided for this purpose.

2. When enlisted men are transferred by staff-returns from any post or detachment, the marine officer or non-commissioned officer in command thereof, when transmitting their staff-returns, will inform the commanding officer of the post or vessel to which the transfers are made as to the time at which the men so transferred may be expected to arrive, and also as to the cause of any delay that may be anticipated.

3. Paragraph 12, Marine Corps Order No. 3 (Series 1912), is amended to read as follows:

When a straggler from another post is apprehended or surrenders within ten days from the time of his original absence, the commanding officer of the barracks from which he is absent shall be notified immediately by telegraph, GIVING THE DATE AND HOUR OF DELIVERY OR SURRENDER.

Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,

(Series 1912).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, May 6, 1912.

1. It having been brought to the attention of these Headquarters that the field hats of officers and men are in many instances improperly shaped after issue, it is hereby directed that the field hat shall be worn in the shape issued by the Quartermaster, with the crown creased from front to rear. This crease will not be pinched together, nor will any other change in the hat as issued be permitted, except a slight turning down of the brim in front to protect the eyes from the sun. The hat ornament will be fastened in its proper place and through only one thickness of the hat.

2. Commanding officers of organizations, posts or detachments will be held accountable that the campaign hats are worn in the shape above prescribed, requiring, if necessary, that new hats be procured.

Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NUMBER 8.
(Series 1912).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, May 21, 1912.

In order to carry into effect the provisions of Navy Department General Order No. 181, of May 4, 1912, the following instructions are hereby issued to take effect from July 1, 1912:

TO THE OFFICER IN CHARGE OF THE ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR'S DEPARTMENT.

1. (a) The officer in charge of the adjutant and inspector's department will prepare at once, for distribution to the service before July 1, 1912, a blank form, consisting of one or two sheets as may be necessary, for insertion in the service record book of each man now in the service, which form is intended to show at all times the state of the man's pay account, as shown by the pay roll upon which his account was last audited and settled by a paymaster, sufficient space being provided to cover monthly entries for an entire enlistment, in such form as (with the approval of the Major General Commandant) will meet the requirements of the Paymaster's Department, U. S. Marine Corps.

(b) The supply of service record books now on hand will, before distribution to the service, be provided with this additional sheet or sheets, and all future issues of such books will contain additional pages designed for this purpose.

(c) The deck and summary court memorandum slips (form N. M. C. 512 and 517) now required by Marine Corps General Orders Nos. 28 and 34, to be furnished the adjutant and inspector's department and the Auditor for the Navy Department, will be changed to read "Loss of pay $..... ..... noted in service record book."

TO COMMANDING OFFICERS OF MARINES ASHORE AND AFLOAT.

2. (a) Commanding Officers, charged with the keeping of the "service record book" of any marine, will, immediately after the payment of each monthly pay roll (beginning with the roll for June, 1912), cause to be entered and verified, without delay, in the space provided in the "service record book," a record of the payment or settlement as shown by the pay roll as audited and settled by the paymaster concerned, entering balances "Overpaid" or "Unpaid," if any; and if none, entering by means of stamp the words "Paid in full" through the space provided for the entering of such balances. To prevent the possibility of alterations or erasures, where balances are shown, care should be taken at the time of transfer to see that such balances agree with the pay roll upon which last settlement appears. If transfer occurs after submission of the pay roll but before settlement is made, the amount stated for payment will be shown in the "service record book'' as '' due and unpaid'', and in the event that an error is developed upon the paymaster's audit of the roll in any balance overpaid or unpaid, so noted in the ''service record book,'' the paymaster concerned will immediately, upon being informed of the transfer, request a checkage or credit of the necessary amount properly to adjust the error in question.

(b) Upon the transfer of any enlisted man, detachment, or organization of marines, to or from any ship, station, organization, or to expeditionary service, the commanding officer of marines will furnish the paymaster of the ship or station from which the transfer is made, with a copy of his report of transfers as rendered on form N. M. C. 312, to the adjutant and inspector's department, U. S. Marine Corps.

(c) Commanding officers are directed to comply strictly with the provisions of Navy Regulations governing transfers of enlisted men of the Marine Corps, and also with the latter portion of paragraph 2 of the Department's order above mentioned.

(d) All charges to be made against the accounts of enlisted men transferred, that are not required to be noted in the ''service record book'', such as lost property, excessive issue of clothing, etc., will be made the subject of a request for checkage, forwarded through official channels, by the post quartermaster or other officer responsible therefor.

(e) Upon the transfer of any man from a post or station to another, or to a ship, the commanding officer will note, in the space provided in the ''service record book,'' the amount of the man's indebtedness to the post exchange at the time of transfer, and, when such indebtedness is in excess of the authorized allowance, will make such additional explanatory notes in the column of ''Remarks'' thereon as may be required to insure a prompt settlement of the same. Such notation will be the succeeding commanding officer's authority for entering the sum stated, as a checkage against the man's account, upon the first pay roll rendered subsequent to transfer, or, in the event of the death, discharge, or desertion of the man prior thereto, upon the account as closed thereby, noting over the amount the name of the post exchange on whose account the checkage is made. Upon transfer between organizations at the same post, or station, the notation of post exchange dues, in ''service record book,'' will not be required.

(f) To enable the pay officers of ships or stations, carrying the rolls of enlisted men, to transfer the accounts of dead men, deserters, and general court-martial prisoners to the Auditor for the Navy Department, to the deserters' roll at Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps, and to naval prisons, respectively, as well as to enable them to prepare final settlements preliminary to discharge, commanding officers of marines will furnish such pay officers with a detailed statement of account in all such cases, prepared on form N. M. C. 90, revised.

(g) Commanding officers of marines afloat, in initiating the new system of rendering pay rolls of marines aboard ship, as provided in Navy Department General Order No. 181, dated May 4, 1912, will obtain from the pay officer of the ship such information from the rolls for the quarter ending June 30, 1912, as will enable them to make the necessary entries in the "service record book." Subsequent entries should be verified, where necessary, in like manner.

(h) In the event of the loss of the "service record book" of any man en route between ships or stations on transfer, the commanding officer of the post or detachment where the marine joins will immediately apply to the man's previous commanding officer for the data necessary to take up the account properly on his rolls. In the meantime (while awaiting this information) the man's name will be taken up on each roll rendered, subsequent to his joining, with the following notation under "Remarks": "No account received, application made therefor ....., 191..."

TO POST QUARTERMASTERS OR OTHER OFFICERS CHARGED WITH THE KEEPING OF PUBLIC PROPERTY, AND POST EXCHANGE OFFICERS.

3. (a) The post quartermaster and post exchange officer will keep themselves informed of the names of men leaving the post by transfer, who may be in debt to the Government for quartermaster stores, or to the post exchange for services, etc.; and will prepare, when it is necessary to obtain the signatures of the men in acknowledgment of indebtedness for lost property, excessive issues of clothing, post exchange dues, etc., vouchers or statements of charges in each case, in due time to procure the signatures of such men thereon, before they leave the post. In the case of quartermaster stores the statement of charges will be transmitted, through official channels, for checkage against their accounts on the next succeeding pay roll, to the commanding officer of the post, or detachment, to which the men are transferred; but in the case of post exchange dues the amount thereof will be noted, in the space provided, in each man's "service record book" for checkage in like manner.

(b) The collection of post exchange dues of men transferred to ships will be made through the paymaster of the post concerned, on monthly vouchers as heretofore, after checkages have been noted in the "service record book" as above required, and proper evidence thereof has been filed with the paymaster's voucher covering the same. In the case of men transferred to shore stations, collections will be made through the paymaster of the post on whose rolls the checkages appear; payments in such cases to be made from the data on rolls, without additional voucher, when the accounts are properly stated and signed by the men concerned.

(c) In the event of any man's failure or refusal to sign an acknowledgment of his indebtedness to the post exchange, there will be filed with the pay roll or attached to the post exchange voucher, as the case may be, the man's receipts, chits, or checks, etc., necessary to cover the amount of the indebtedness it is claimed is due the exchange on his account; if this is impracticable, a proper certificate by a disinterested officer will likewise be filed. In the event of any man's refusal to sign an acknowledgment of his responsibility for lost or damaged public property, a certificate of a disinterested officer, detailed to investigate the circumstances of the loss or damage of the public property in question, will be procured in the proper form, and forwarded with the request for checkage to the commanding officer of the post or organization to which the man was transferred.

TO THE OFFICER IN CHARGE OF THE PAYMASTER'S DEPARTMENT.

4. (a) The officer in charge of the paymaster's department will make such changes in the vouchers, forms and procedure of his department as are necessary to carry into effect the purpose and provisions of this and the Department's regulations and orders on the subject, submitting such as may require it to this office for its approval, or for the approval of the Comptroller of the Treasury, under the act of July 31, 1894, as the case may require.

(b) He will issue such detailed instructions to the subordinate officers of his department as may be necessary to insure the proper initiation and operation of the new system of accounts and transfers, and will further report to this office for action, when occasion requires, the failure of any marine officer ashore or afloat to comply with the regulations and orders on this subject.

AMENDMENTS TO FORMER ORDERS.

5. General Order No. 9, January 27, 1909, is hereby revoked.

In General Order No. 52, paragraph 2, lines 6 and 7, strike out "transfer pay accounts" and substitute "pay rolls, service record books." Paragraph 3, strike out, and substitute the following: "Checkages of all amounts of properly authorized credits will be made on current pay rolls in the cases of men attached to the command on the last day of the month; and, in the case of men transferred, will be made from information to be obtained from service record books, on the next monthly pay roll of the ship or station to which transferred."

In Marine Corps Order No. 44, paragraph 4, 3rd and 4th lines, strike out "Except where the man is carried by a naval paymaster." Fifth line, after comma, insert "or of the navy." Eleventh line, after "shore," insert "or sea." Paragraph 5, next to last line after the words "clothing account rolls," add "ashore or afloat."

MARINE CORPS ORDERS Series 1913.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NUMBER 1.
(Series 1913).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, Jan. 13, 1913.

1. The following excerpts from a decision of the Comptroller of the Treasury, dated December 18, 1912, are published for the information and guidance of all concerned:—

"a. To what place is an enlisted man entitled to pay on discharge?

"I think it may be regarded as well settled that the place to which an enlisted man of the Marine Corps is entitled to travel pay on discharge is the place at which he offers himself for enlistment and takes the initial steps towards entering the service, regardless of the fact that he may be transported to some other place before executing the formal contract of enlistment and taking the oath of allegiance (56 MS. Comp. Dec. 1006; March 4, 1911). This is in harmony with the general policy of the Government in dealing with its discharged soldiers, and the right to be returned at Government expense to such place is not dependent upon the right to pay from the date of making application for enlistment.

"b From what date is a man enlisting in the Marine Corps for the first time entitled to be paid?

"I have to advise you that the date from which an enlisted man of the Marine Corps is entitled to be paid is the date upon which he takes the oath of allegiance, except in those rare cases where it is affirmatively shown that the enlistment contract was completed and the man's status changed from that of a civilian to that of a soldier by some act other than the taking of the oath, such as actual entry upon duty with the knowledge and consent of the proper authorities, in which cases payment should be allowed from the date of such act regardless of the date of application."

2. In view of the foregoing, the place of application will, in the case of future enlistments, be recorded in the man's service-record book and other records as the place of enlistment: and the date upon which the oath of allegiance is taken will be recorded as the date of enlistment.

3. The Adjutant and Inspector's Department will make the necessary changes in the records of the enlisted men now in the Corps who are affected by the Comptroller's decision, and will notify the commanding officers of posts and detachments accordingly.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

CORRECTION OF
MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NUMBER 1. (Series 1913).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29, 1913.

1. Strike out paragraph 2 of Marine Corps Orders No. 1 (current series) and substitute the following:

2. In case of future enlistments, the place and date of the taking of the oath of allegiance will be recorded in the man's service-record book and other records as the place and date of enlistment. On page 1 of the service-record books, in the space below "Place of Birth," an additional entry, "Applied for enlistment at," will be made, followed by the name of the place where the man offered himself for enlistment and signed the declaration on the enlistment paper. In discharge certificates hereafter issued, if the place of application is not the same as the place of oath (enlistment), there will be made in the space above the line "Given under my hand" an entry reading "Applied for enlistment at," adding the place of application.

W. P. BIDDLE,
Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NUMBER 2. (Series 1913).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS,
WASHINGTON, March 28, 1913.

1. Marine Corps General Order No. 2 is revoked.

2. The following extra compensation, which will be credited on the monthly pay-rolls, is allowed enlisted men of the Marine Corps, under regularly authorized assignments or details as herein provided, for service with messes composed of enlisted men of the Corps, ashore or afloat, viz.:

Mess-sergeant	$6.00 per month.
Cook, 1st class	10.00 " "
" 2nd class	8.00 " "
" 3rd class	7.00 " "
" 4th class	5.00 " "
Messman	5.00 " "

3. At regularly established posts or shore stations, all details to any of the above grades shall be made on the first day of the month; and the number detailed shall be based on the ration-strength of the command on that date. No further details of cooks or messmen will be permitted on intermediate days of the month, except to fill a vacancy caused by transfer, discharge, death, or desertion, or where the ration-strength of the command is increased by 25 per cent of the number as shown on the first day of the month, nor thereafter, except upon a like increase.

4. Mess-sergeants are authorized as follows:

(a) One for each company mess, where detachments of enlisted men of the Marine Corps are regularly organized into companies of substantially the same strength as those of the infantry of the Army, and appear as such upon muster-rolls rendered to these headquarters, and upon pay-rolls of the paymaster's department.

(b) Where detachments of such companies mess separately, in number habitually greater than twenty-five, one additional mess-sergeant is allowed.

(c) Mess-sergeants will habitually be detailed from the grade of sergeant.

(d) The above provisions for mess-sergeants do not apply to companies organized at posts within the United States, except where specifically authorized by the Commandant of the Corps.

(e) Where organizations or detachments are merged into a general mess, or where there is no company organization such as described in paragraph (a), mess-sergeants will not be detailed; but additional compensation will be given a mess-steward, one for each general mess, as provided in paragraph 333, U. S. Army Regulations, 1910.

5. Cooks will be detailed from the grade of private in all cases; and in no case will men receiving extra compensation as such be detailed on, or receive additional pay for, any other special duty. In detailing cooks, the following apportionment will be observed:

(a) 50 men or under, serving separately, 1 first-class cook.

(b) For over 50 to 75 men, serving separately, 1 first-class and 1 third-class cook.

(c) For 75 or more men, serving as a company, 1 first-class and 1 second-class cook: provided, that 75 or more men in a company are not to receive the allowance of cooks "for 100 to 200 men," if the strength of said company is under 150. When the strength of a company is less than 75 men, the provisions of paragraph (b) will govern.

(d) For 100 men or less, serving in garrison, 1 first-class and 1 second-class cook.

(e) For over 100 to 200 men, 1 first-class, 1 second-class, and one third-class cook.

(f) For over 200 to 300 men, 1 first-class, 1 second-class, 1 third-class, and 1 fourth-class cook.

(g) For over 300 to 400 men, 1 first-class, 1 second-class, 1 third-class, and 2 fourth-class cooks.

(h) For over 400 to 500 men (except where there are two or more distinct messes, when cooks will be allowed as indicated in (a) to (g), inclusive), 1 first-class, 1 second-class, 2 third-class, and 2 fourth-class cooks.

(i) For over 500 to 600 men (except where there are two or more distinct messes, when cooks will be allowed as indicated in (a) to (g), inclusive), 1 first-class, 2 second-class, 2 third-class, and 2 fourth-class cooks.

6. Messmen, not to exceed one for every 20 men, will be detailed from the grade of private. Under no circumstances will non-commissioned officers be so detailed. Enlisted men of the Marine Corps detailed as messmen afloat are also entitled to the same extra compensation for service with crew-messes as is allowed enlisted men of the Navy under like circumstances.

Major-General Commandant.

MARINE CORPS ORDERS,
NUMBER 3. (Series 1913).

HEADQUARTERS
U. S. MARINE CORPS.
WASHINGTON, April 15, 1913.

1. Whenever supplies of any kind are purchased for use at a post, and are furnished from other than a Government source, the officer who will be accountable therefor will himself sign in advance an order for each delivery and keep a copy thereof in his office. In case a telephonic order is necessary, a signed memorandum of such order will be kept. In case of an emergency when supplies are required and the accountable officer is not present at the post, the order for said supplies can be signed by an officer detailed for this purpose by the commanding officer, but in no case shall orders be signed by an enlisted man.

2. Commanding Officers will require that all such supplies, upon delivery, be inspected by a commissioned officer, who, when practicable, will be other than the accountable officer. The inspecting officer will personally satisfy himself as to the quantity and quality of each article received, and certify the fact over his official signature, and at once deliver the certificate to the accountable officer. The certificate will be checked and compared with the retained copy of the order and filed together for subsequent comparison with dealers' bills. These certificates will be kept on file until the next inspection by an officer of the adjutant and inspector's department.

3. Only commissioned officers will have custody of or control over this record of supplies received.

4. Nothing herein contained will in any way relieve the accountable officers or their subordinates of their responsibility in the premises.

5. To avoid the necessity of sending to the Dead Letter Office mail for enlisted men received at Headquarters after discharge, commanding officers will ascertain from men about to be discharged the address at which mail will reach them after discharge, and will report such address in the "Remarks" column of "Reports of Transfers and Discharges" (N. M. C. 312). Commanding officers will also furnish men about to be discharged with three or more cards (N. M. C. 684), to be used by them in reporting to Headquarters any change in their address for a peroid of three months after discharge.

6. A supply of the necessary cards will be furnished by the adjutant and inspector's department.

The officer closing a service-record book, preliminary to discharge, shall make in said book, under "Professional and Conduct Record," a notation as to whether or not the man concerned is considered fit for a commission in the Marine Corps volunteer service. If the man possesses special qualifications, they shall be stated. Because of the importance of the subject, the greatest care shall be exercised in formulating the notation above prescribed. When practicable, the notation may be made, either in whole or in part, with a rubber stamp, but shall invariably be followed by the pen-and-ink signature of the officer responsible for it.

to the commandant of the corps, or to the officer stationed at headquarters in charge of the adjutant and inspector's department; and to this end commanding officers of ships are requested, and commanding officers of posts and detachments are directed, to forward such papers via the assistant adjutant and inspector, San Francisco. Such papers will be carefully examined by that officer, and, should any errors not of a trivial nature be discovered therein, they will be returned for correction. When they have been properly prepared and the necessary information has been compiled therefrom for the use of the assistant adjutant and inspector, San Francisco, they will be forwarded without delay to the proper office.

(c) Requisitions for blank forms, books, and other articles supplied by the adjutant and inspector's department will be made by the above-mentioned posts and detachments; also by the stations in the Philippine Islands, China, and Guam, and by detachments on board vessels of the Asiatic Fleet, on the assistant adjutant and inspector, San Francisco, who is authorized to fill such requisitions.

Officers on leave, or absent on duty, on the last day of the month (if they did not do so before departing on leave or duty) shall furnish, by the last day of the current month, to the posts on the rolls of which their names are borne, the necessary information concerning their monthly exercises. In cases of officers attached to posts but absent therefrom on duty the nature of which requires their names' being carried on two rolls, their permanent post will not be required to furnish data regarding monthly exercise in their cases; but this data shall be shown on the roll of the organization with which they are actually serving.

(e) An officer whose name is not, by reason of change of station, borne on the roll of any post, company, or detachment as attached thereto on the last day of the month, shall, upon reporting at his new station, furnish the necessary data regarding the monthly exercise for the month or months during the time this information does not appear on any roll; and this data shall be embodied in the remarks opposite his name on the first roll on which it appears at his new station.

The third copy shall then be forwarded to the officer making the payment, with the original roll upon which payment has just been completed. The rolls for January, February, and March will be forwarded immediately after the payment for April, 1914.

2. The officer of the paymaster's department receiving these retained rolls will compare them with the originals and certify in the place provided thereon that they are true copies of the rolls upon which payment was made, whereupon he will transmit the third copies of all said rolls, with the originals, as a part of his returns for the month in which they were paid, to the officer in charge of the paymaster's department.

1. Under the terms of a decision rendered by the Comptroller of the Treasury, September 23, 1914, enlisted men of the Marine Corps while not required to make good time lost by absences without leave or other cause, are, for the purpose of assimilation of their continuous service pay to that of enlisted men of the Army, not entitled to credit for time lost as specified in the act of April 27, 1914.

2. In accordance therewith, in the computation of enlistment periods of marines terminating prior to April 27, 1914, for the purpose of determining the date they are entitled to continuous service pay, credit should be denied to them for time lost only by unauthorized absences in excess of one day, as heretofore; while, in the computation of enlistment periods terminating subsequent to April 27, 1914, for the same purpose, credit should be denied for all periods of time lost by unauthorized absences in excess of one day, on account of disease resulting from intemperate use of drugs or alcoholic liquors or other misconduct, while in confinement awaiting trial or disposition of the case if the trial results in conviction, and while in confinement under sentence.

3. In the preparation of all pay rolls of enlisted men of the Marine Corps next after the receipt of this order, in all cases where continuous service pay has been or is being there credited, the complete service record showing all dates of enlistment, reenlistment and discharge should be set forth thereon, with the appropriate information under "Remarks" on the rolls in the particular case, viz:—"No time lost for causes as specified in M. The continuous service pay in these cases should be adjusted on said pay rolls in accordance with the terms of these instructions.

4. All Service Record Books should have entered therein in the appropriate place, information in detail as to the periods of time lost in current enlistments as herein specified. Where this information in any particular case is unknown to commanding officers, a proper application should be made to these Headquarters in order that the missing data may be supplied and at once duly entered.

5. Hereafter, all discharge certificates as prepared will have entered thereon " ..... days lost for causes as specified in Marine Corps Order No. 15, dated September 28, 1914."
